- b. can prove without delay that he was not at the place of the offence when it was committed.

² If the defendant is unfit to remain in detention or if there are other valid reasons, the Federal Office may order measures other than detention to ensure his presence.

³ At the same time the Federal Office shall rule on which objects and assets will remain seized or must be seized.

- b. derive from the offence.

² If an authority, or a third party with rights acquired in good faith, or the victim who lives in Switzerland asserts rights over the objects or assets which can serve as evidence, their handing over shall be subject to the condition that the requesting State guarantees their return without costs after the conclusion of its proceedings.

³ The objects or assets which derive from the offence include:

- a. instruments which served to commit the offence;

² The waiver of such a fiscal lien may be made dependent on reciprocity.

Art. 61 Time limit for taking over

If the deadline given is not respected, mutual assistance may be granted on the points that are not subject to conditions.

³ The Federal Office shall examine if the response of the requesting State satisfies the conditions set.

- c. it is guaranteed that the requesting State will not prosecute him for the same offence after acquittal or completing a sentence in Switzerland.

² A foreign national who is habitually resident in Switzerland may also be prosecuted in Switzerland if his extradition cannot be justified and prosecution in Switzerland seems appropriate with regard to his personal situation and social rehabilitation.

³ These provisions do not apply if the offence is subject to Swiss jurisdiction on the basis of another provision.¹³⁹

Art. 86 Applicable law

¹ The offence shall be judged according to Swiss law as if it had been committed in Switzerland.

Art. 89 Effects

¹ If another State prosecutes the offence, the Swiss authorities may not take further measures against the defendant for the same offence:

- a. unless the requested State has given notice that it is not in a position to conclude the prosecution; or
- b. if, according to the decision made in the requested State, the conditions of Article 5 letter a or b are met.

² The effect of the time limitation provisions under Swiss law is suspended provided the proceedings including enforcement of the sentence are ongoing in the requested State.¹⁴³

³ If the defendant was extradited to the requested State for other offences, this State need not observe the conditions of extradition in accordance with Article 38 provided it grants the request for prosecution.

Art. 91 Decision on the request

¹ The Federal Office shall decide on whether to accept the foreign request after consulting the prosecuting authorities.

² If it accepts the request, it shall transmit the file to the prosecuting authority and notify the requesting State and the person concerned.

Art. 92 Foreign investigative measures

Any investigative measure carried out by the authorities of the requesting State under its law shall be considered equivalent to a corresponding Swiss investigative measure.

Art. 93 Costs

¹ The costs of the proceedings set by the requesting State shall be added to the costs of the proceedings in Switzerland and collected. They are not refunded to the requesting State.

¹⁴³ The suspension of the effects of the time limitation provisions has been abolished by Art. 97 ff. of the Swiss Criminal Code (SR 311.0) and time limits for execution have been replaced by an extension of the regular time limit (AS 2006 3459; BBl 1999 1979).

² The cantons shall have a right of disposal over any fines paid and, subject to the provisions of the Federal Act of 19 March 2004¹⁴⁴ on the Division of Forfeited Assets, over forfeited objects.¹⁴⁵

³ The requested State shall be notified of the costs of the proceedings incurred in Switzerland if the requested State takes over the prosecution. Their reimbursement shall not be requested.

Part Five Enforcement of Criminal Judgments

Chapter 1 Conditions

Section 1 Enforcement by Switzerland

Art. 94 Principle

¹ Final and enforceable criminal judgments from another State may be enforced at that State's request if:

- a. the convicted person is habitually resident in Switzerland or has to face charges here for a serious offence;
- b. the subject of the conviction is an offence committed abroad which, if committed in Switzerland, would be punishable here; and
- c. enforcement in Switzerland seems to be appropriate for one of the reasons specified in Article 85 paragraphs 1 and 2 or likely to be barred in the requesting State.

² Sentences imposed abroad shall be executed provided they do not exceed the maximum penalty provided by Swiss law for a corresponding offence. Sentences that remain below the minimum penalty according to Swiss law may be executed.

³ ...¹⁴⁶

⁴ Fines as well as costs arising from proceedings under Article 63 may also be enforced if the convicted person is habitually resident abroad but has assets at his disposal in Switzerland and if the requesting State grants reciprocity.

Art. 95 Inadmissibility of the enforcement order

¹ The order permitting enforcement (exequatur) may not be issued if:

- a.¹⁴⁷ the conviction took place at a time when, under Swiss law, the prosecution would have been time barred;
- b. the sentence would have been time barred under Swiss law if a Swiss authority had imposed it at the same time; or
- c. the offence is also subject to Swiss jurisdiction and no sentence could be imposed under Swiss law for other reasons.

² Decisions on costs shall be declared enforceable only if the costs are to be paid to the State.

¹⁴⁴ SR 312.4

¹⁴⁵ Amended by Annex No 2 of the FA of 19 March 2004 on the Division of Forfeited Assets, in force since 1 August 2004 (AS 2004 3503; BBl 2002 441).

¹⁴⁶ Repealed by No I of the FA of 4 Oct. 1996, with effect from 1 Feb. 1997 (AS 1997 114; BBl 1995 III 1).

¹⁴⁷ The amendment in accordance with Art. 97 ff. of the Swiss Criminal Code (SR 311.0) contains a limitation system (AS 2006 3459; BBl 1999 1979).

Art. 96 Refusal to enforce

The court shall refuse to enforce in whole or in part if:

- a. the convicted person has incurred a sentence involving deprivation of liberty in Switzerland for other offences and enforcement as requested would result in an obviously more severe punishment than if the offences taken as a whole were judged in Switzerland; or
- b. the execution of any of the accessory criminal measures in Switzerland is not permitted, or
- c. it is of the opinion that the convicted person has good reason to oppose the enforcement of a judgment or penalty order that was issued in his absence and which is no longer subject to a right of objection or appeal under the law of the requesting State.

Art. 97 Binding force of the findings in fact

In assessing criminal liability and the possibility of prosecution under Swiss law, the court shall be bound to the findings in fact on which the decision relies. If they do not suffice, the gathering of evidence may be ordered.

Art. 98 Effects of enforcement

If Switzerland assumes responsibility for enforcement, no criminal proceedings against the convicted person for the same offence may be instituted or continued here.

Art. 99 Use of Swiss institutions by foreign States

¹ If the conditions of Article 94 paragraph 1 are not met, sentences involving restriction of liberty that have been imposed on a non-Swiss national in another State may be enforced in Switzerland under Swiss law if the other State cannot execute them itself.

² In this case, the final and enforceable foreign decision shall constitute the legal basis for the restriction of the convicted person's liberty.

³ If persons are surrendered to Switzerland in accordance with paragraph 1, then unless arrangements to the contrary have been made with the competent authorities of the surrendering State, they may neither be prosecuted nor punished nor extradited to a third State by the Swiss authorities for offences that they committed before their surrender and that were not the subject of their conviction. These effects shall expire ten days after release on parole or final release from the institution.

⁴ The Federal Council shall regulate the details.

Section 2 Transfer to a Foreign StateArt. 100 Principle

Another State may be requested to enforce a Swiss criminal judgment if:

- a. it is certain to accept the binding force of the judgment in accordance with Article 97; and
- b. the transfer of enforcement is likely to improve the prospects of the social rehabilitation of the convicted person or if Switzerland cannot obtain his extradition.

Art. 101 Conditions for transfer

¹ The convicted person who is detained in Switzerland may only be transferred with a view to enforcement of the judgment under Article 100 if he agrees and if the requested State is expected to accept the conditions set by the Federal Office.

² The convicted person may be transferred without his consent if an international agreement ratified by Switzerland so provides. In this case the conditions and effects of the transfer are regulated exclusively by the said international agreement.¹⁴⁸

Art. 102 Effects of transfer

¹ If another State enforces the criminal judgment, the Swiss authority shall abandon enforcement provided the requested State has not given notice that it will not conclude it.

² The convicted person may be taken into custody so as to ensure his transfer.

³ Article 89 paragraphs 2 and 3 apply by analogy.

Chapter 2 ProcedureSection 1 Request*Art. 103 Documents

In addition to the documents specified in Article 28 paragraph 3, the following shall be enclosed with a request:

- a. the original or an officially authenticated copy of the judgment with a certificate attesting that it is legally enforceable;
- b. a certificate attesting the period of detention undergone in the requesting State;
- c. if the requested State so requests, the original or officially authenticated copy of the criminal file.

Art. 104 Decision on the request

¹ After consulting with the authority which will execute the request, the Federal Office shall decide whether to accept the foreign request. If it accepts, it shall convey the file and its opinion to the executing authority and inform the requesting State. Article 91 paragraph 4 applies by analogy.

² If there is Swiss jurisdiction and if a sentence which is more severe than the one provided by Swiss law was imposed abroad, the prosecution may be taken over instead of the enforcement of the judgment if the requesting State so requests.

¹⁴⁸ Inserted by art. 2 of the FD of 19 Dec. 2003, in force since 1 Oct. 2004 (AS 2004 4161 4162; BBl 2002 4340).

¹ The court shall examine ex officio whether the conditions for enforcement are met and gather the necessary evidence.

² If the conditions are met, the court shall declare that the decision may be enforced and take the measures necessary for enforcement.

³ The decision shall be made in the form of a judgment containing a statement of the rationale therefor. Cantonal law shall provide for an appeal.

Section 3 Enforcement

Art. 107 Execution of the sentence

¹ The sentence determined by the court shall be executed in accordance with Swiss law.

² Execution shall be discontinued if the decision is no longer enforceable in the requesting State.

³ If enforcement relates solely to a decision on costs, the amounts collected after deduction of the costs incurred shall be transferred to the requesting State if it guarantees reciprocity.

Art. 108 Costs

In addition to the costs for the execution of the sentence, the costs of exequatur proceedings and other enforcement measures shall also be regarded as costs in accordance with Article 31.
