Swiss Criminal Code of 21 December 1937 (Status as of 22 November 2022)

The Federal Assembly the Swiss Confederation, based on Article 123 paragraphs 1 and 3 of the Federal Constitution\(^1\),\(^2\) and having considered a Federal Council Dispatch dated 23 July 1918\(^3\), decrees:

Book One: General Provisions

Part One: Felonies and Misdemeanour

Title One: Scope of Application

Art. 1

A penalty or measure may only be imposed for an act that has been expressly declared to be an offence by law.

Art. 2

1. This Code applies to any person who commits a felony or misdemeanor following the date on which it comes into force.

2. Any person who commits a felony or misdemeanor prior to this Code coming into force is only subject to its terms in the event that the penalty hereunder is less than the penalty that would otherwise apply.

Art. 3

1. Any person who commits a felony or misdemeanor in Switzerland is subject to this Code.

\(^1\) Amended by No I of the FA of 30 Sept. 2011 in force since 1 July 2012 (AS 2012 2575; BBl 2010 5651 5677).

If the person concerned has served a sentence in full or in part for the offence in another country, the Swiss court must take the sentence served into account in determining the sentence to be imposed.

If the person concerned has been prosecuted in a foreign country at the request of the Swiss authorities, then unless the offence involves a gross violation of the principles of the Federal Constitution or the Convention from 4 November 1950 for the protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (ECHR), he is not prosecuted in Switzerland for the same offence if:

a. the foreign court has acquitted him and the judgment has taken full legal effect;

b. the penalty to which he had been sentenced in the foreign country has been served, remitted or become time-barred.

If the person prosecuted abroad at the request of the Swiss authorities has not served the sentence or has only served it in part, the whole sentence or the remainder shall be served in Switzerland. The court decides whether a measure that has not been executed abroad or has only been served in part must be executed or continued in Switzerland.

Art. 4

This Code also applies to any person who commits a felony or misdemear against the state or its national security (Art. 265–278).

If the person concerned has been convicted of the offence and has served the sentence in full or in part in another country, the court shall take the sentence served into account in determining the sentence to be imposed.

Art. 5

This Code also applies to any person who is in Switzerland, is not being extradited and has committed any of the following offences abroad:

a. trafficking in human beings (Art. 182), indecent assault (Art. 189), rape (Art. 190), sexual acts with a person incapable of proper judgment or resistance (Art. 191) or encouraging prostitution (Art. 195) if the victim was less than 18 years of age;

6 Expression amended by Annex No 14 of the FA of 19 Dec. 2008 (Adult Protection, Law of Persons and Law of Children), in force since 1 Jan. 2013 (AS 2011 725; BBl 2006 7001). This amendment has been made throughout the text.
7 Amended by Art. 2 No 1 of the FedD of 24 March 2006 on the Approval and Implementation of the Optional Protocol of 25 May 2000 to the Convention on the Rights of the Child, on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography, in force since a bis. 8 sexual acts with dependent persons (Art. 188) and sexual acts with minors against payment (Art. 196);
b. sexual acts with children (Art. 187) if the victim was less than 14 years of age;
c. 9 aggravated pornography (Art. 197 para. 3 and 4) if the items or performances depict sexual acts with minors.

2 Unless the offence involves a gross violation of the principles of the Federal Constitution and the ECHR 10, the person concerned is not liable to further prosecution in Switzerland for the offence if:
a. he has been acquitted of the offence abroad in a legally binding judgment;
b. the sentence that was imposed abroad has been served, remitted, or become time-barred.

3 If the person concerned has been convicted of the offence abroad and if the sentence imposed abroad has been partly served, the court shall take the part served into account in the sentence to be imposed. The court decides whether a measure ordered abroad but only partly executed there must be continued or taken into account in the sentence imposed in Switzerland.

Art. 6
1 Any person who commits a felony or misdemeanour abroad that Switzerland is obliged to prosecute in terms of an international convention is subject to this Code provided:
a. the act is also liable to prosecution at the place of commission or no criminal law jurisdiction applies at the place of commission; and
b. the person concerned remains in Switzerland and is not extradited to the foreign country.

2 The court determines the sentence so that overall the person concerned is not treated more severely than would have been the case under the law at the place of commission.

3 Unless the offence involves a gross violation of the principles of the Federal Constitution and of the ECHR 11, the person concerned is not liable to further prosecution in Switzerland if:

10 SR 0.101
11 SR 0.101
a. he has been acquitted of the offence abroad in a legally binding judgment;
b. the sentence that was imposed abroad has been served, remitted, or become time-barred.

4 If the person concerned has been convicted of the offence abroad and if the sentence imposed abroad has been partly served, the court shall take the part served into account in the sentence to be imposed. The court decides whether a measure ordered abroad but only partly executed there must be continued or taken into account in the sentence imposed in Switzerland.

Art. 7

1 Any person who commits a felony or misdemeanour abroad where the requirements of Articles 4, 5 or 6 are not fulfilled is subject to this Code if:
   a. the offence is also liable to prosecution at the place of commission or the place of commission is not subject to criminal law jurisdiction;
   b. the person concerned is in Switzerland or is extradited to Switzerland due to the offence; and
   c. under Swiss law extradition is permitted for the offence, but the person concerned is not being extradited.

2 If the person concerned is not Swiss and if the felony or misdemeanour was not committed against a Swiss person, paragraph 1 is applicable only if:
   a. the request for extradition was refused for a reason unrelated to the nature of the offence; or
   b. the offender has committed a particularly serious felony that is proscribed by the international community.

3 The court shall determine the sentence so that overall the person concerned is not treated more severely than would have been the case under the law at the place of commission.

4 Unless the offence involves a gross violation of the principles of the Federal Constitution and the ECHR\(^\text{12}\), the person concerned is not liable to further prosecution in Switzerland for the offence if:
   a. he has been acquitted of the offence abroad in a legally binding judgment;
   b. the sentence that was imposed abroad has been served, remitted, or become time-barred.

\(^{12}\) SR 0.101
If the person concerned has been convicted of the offence abroad and if the sentence imposed abroad has been partly served, the court shall take the part served into account in the sentence to be imposed. The court decides whether a measure ordered abroad but only partly executed there must be continued or taken into account in the sentence imposed in Switzerland.

Art. 8

1 A felony or misdemeanour is considered to be committed at the place where the person concerned commits it or unlawfully omits to act, and at the place where the offence has taken effect.

2 An attempted offence is considered to be committed at the place where the person concerned attempted it and at the place where he intended the offence to take effect.

Art. 9

1 This Code does not apply to persons whose offences are subject to military criminal law.

2 For persons who have not attained the age of 18 at the time of the offence, the provisions of the Juvenile Criminal Law Act of 20 June 2003 (JCLA) are reserved. Where an offence committed before and after attaining the age of 18 must be judged, Article 3 paragraph 2 JCLA applies.

Title Two: Criminal Liability

Art. 10

1 In this Code, felonies are distinguished from misdemeanours according to the severity of the penalties that the offence carries.

2 Felonies are offences that carry a custodial sentence of more than three years.

3 Misdemeanours are offences that carry a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or a monetary penalty.

Art. 11

1 A felony or misdemeanour may also be committed by a failure to comply with a duty to act.

A person fails to comply with a duty to act if he does not prevent a legal interest protected under criminal law from being exposed to danger or from being harmed even though, due to his legal position, he has a duty to do so, in particular on the basis of:

a. the law;

b. a contract;

c. a risk-bearing community entered into voluntarily; or

d. the creation of a risk.

Any person who fails to comply with a duty to act shall be liable to prosecution only if, on the basis of the elements of the offence concerned, his conduct is, in the circumstances, as culpable as it would have been had he actively committed the offence.

The court may reduce the sentence.

Art. 12

1 Unless the law expressly provides otherwise, a person is only liable to prosecution for a felony or misdemeanour if he commits it wilfully.

2 A person commits a felony or misdemeanour wilfully if he carries out the act in the knowledge of what he is doing and in accordance with his will. A person acts wilfully as soon as he regards the realisation of the act as being possible and accepts this.

3 A person commits a felony or misdemeanour through negligence if he fails to consider or disregards the consequences of his conduct due to a culpable lack of care. A lack of care is culpable if the person fails to exercise the care that is incumbent on him in the circumstances and commensurate with his personal capabilities.

1 If the person concerned acts under an erroneous belief as to the circumstances, the court shall judge the act according to the circumstances as the offender believed them to be.

2 If the person concerned could have avoided the error had he exercised due care, he shall be liable to prosecution for his negligent act provided the negligent commission of the act is an offence.

Art. 14

Any person who acts as required or permitted by the law, acts lawfully even if the act carries a penalty under this Code or another Act.
Art. 15

If any person is unlawfully attacked or threatened with imminent attack, the person attacked and any other person are entitled to ward off the attack by means that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Art. 16

1. If a person in defending himself exceeds the limits of self-defence as defined in Article 15 and in doing so commits an offence, the court shall reduce the sentence.

2. If a person in defending himself exceeds the limits of self-defence as a result of excusable excitement or panic in reaction to the attack, he does not commit an offence.

Art. 17

Any person who carries out an act that carries a criminal penalty in order to save a legal interest of his own or of another from immediate and not otherwise avertable danger, acts lawfully if by doing so he safeguards interests of higher value.

Art. 18

1. Any person who carries out an act that carries a criminal penalty in order to save himself or another from immediate and not otherwise avertable danger to life or limb, freedom, honour, property or other interests of high value shall receive a reduced penalty if he could reasonably have been expected to abandon the endangered interest.

2. If the person concerned could not have been reasonably expected to abandon the endangered interest, he does not commit an offence.

Art. 19

1. If the person concerned was unable at the time of the act to appreciate that his act was wrong or to act in accordance with this appreciation of the act, he is not liable to a penalty.

2. If the person concerned was only partially able at the time of the act to appreciate that his act was wrong or to act in accordance with this appreciation of the act, the court shall reduce the sentence.

3. Measures in accordance with Articles 59–61, 63, 64, 67, 67b and 67e may, however, be taken.\(^{15}\)

\(^{15}\) Amended by No I I of the FA of 13 Dec. 2013 on Activity Prohibition Orders and Contact Prohibition and Exclusion Orders, in force since 1 Jan. 2015 (AS 2014 2055; BBl 2012 8819).
If it was possible for the person concerned to avoid his state of mental incapacity or diminished responsibility and had he done so to foresee the act that may be committed in that state, paragraphs 1–3 do not apply.

Art. 20

If there are serious grounds for believing that the accused may not be legally responsible due to a mental disorder, the investigating authority or the court shall order a specialist report from an expert.

Art. 21

Any person who is not and cannot be aware that, by carrying out an act, he is acting unlawfully, does not commit an offence. If the error was avoidable, the court shall reduce the sentence.

Art. 22

1 If, having embarked on committing a felony or misdemeanour, the offender does not complete the criminal act or if the result required to complete the act is not or cannot be achieved, the court may reduce the penalty.

2 If the offender fails to recognise through a serious lack of judgment that the act cannot under any circumstances be completed due to the nature of the objective or the means used to achieve it, no penalty is imposed.

Art. 23

1 If the person concerned of his own accord does not complete the criminal act or if he assists in preventing the completion of the act, the court may reduce the sentence or waive any penalty.

2 If two or more persons carry out or participate in a criminal act, the court may reduce the sentence or waive any penalty in respect of any person concerned who, of his own accord, assists in preventing the completion of the act.

3 The court may also reduce the sentence or waive any penalty in respect of a person who withdraws from carrying out or participating in a criminal act if the withdrawal of the person concerned would have prevented the completion of the act had it not remained uncompleted for other reasons.

4 If one or more of the persons carrying out or participating in a criminal act makes a serious effort to prevent the completion of the act, the court may reduce the sentence or waive any penalty if an offence is committed irrespective of the efforts of that person or persons.
Art. 24

1 Any person who has wilfully incited another to commit a felony or a misdemeanour, provided the offence is committed, incurs the same penalty as applies to the person who has committed the offence.

2 Any person who attempts to incite someone to commit a felony incurs the penalty applicable to an attempt to commit that felony.

Art. 25

Any person who wilfully assists another to commit a felony or a misdemeanour shall be liable to a reduced penalty.

Art. 26

If criminal liability is established or increased by a special obligation on the part of the offender, a participant shall be liable to a reduced penalty.

Art. 27

Special personal conditions, characteristics and circumstances that increase, reduce or exclude criminal liability are taken into account in the case offenders or participants to which they apply.

Art. 28

1 If an offence is committed and completed through publication in a medium, then, subject to the following provisions, only the author shall be liable to prosecution.

2 If the author cannot be identified or if he cannot be brought to court in Switzerland, then the editor responsible in accordance with Article 322bis shall be liable to prosecution. If there is no responsible editor, then the person responsible for publication in accordance with Article 322bis shall be liable for prosecution.

3 If the publication has taken place without the knowledge or against the will of the author, then the editor or, in his absence, the person responsible for publication shall be liable to prosecution as the offender.

4 The accurate reporting of public talks and official communications from a public authority may not be made subject to prosecution.

Art. 28a

1 If persons who are professionally involved in the publication of information in the editorial section of a periodical medium or their auxiliary personnel refuse to give evidence as to the identity of the author or as to the content and sources of their information, they are not liable to any penalty nor to any procedural law enforcement measures.

2 Paragraph 1 does not apply if the court holds that:

a. the evidence is required in order to save a person from immediate danger to life or limb; or

b. without the evidence, a case of homicide under Articles 111–113 or a different felony that carries a minimum custodial sentence of three years, or an offence under Articles 187, 189–191, 197 paragraph 4, 260ter, 260quinquies, 260sexties, 305bis, 305ter or 322ter–322septies of this Code or under Article 19 paragraph 2 of the Narcotics Act of 3 October 195117 will not be solved or the persons suspected of committing the said offence may not be apprehended.

Art. 29

A special obligation, the violation of which establishes or increases criminal liability, and which is incumbent only on the legal entity, the company or the sole proprietorship18, is attributed to a natural person, if that person acts:

a. as a governing officer or as a member of a governing officer of a legal entity;

b. as a partner;

c. as an employee with independent decision-making authority in his field of activity within a legal entity, a company or a sole proprietorship19; or

d. without being a governing officer, member of a governing officer, partner or employee, as the de facto manager.

Art. 30

1 If an act shall be liable to prosecution only if a complaint is filed, any person who suffers harm due to the act may request that the person responsible be prosecuted.

2 If the person suffering harm does not have the legal capacity to act, his legal representative is entitled to file a complaint. If he is under

17 SR 812.121

18 Footnote relevant to German text only.

19 Footnote relevant to German text only.
guardianship or subject to a general deputyship, the adult protection authority is also entitled to file a complaint.20

3 If the person suffering harm is a minor or if he is subject to a general deputyship, he is entitled to file a complaint if he is capable of judgement.21

4 If the person suffering harm dies without filing the criminal complaint or without expressly waiving his right to file the criminal complaint, his next of kin are entitled to file the complaint.

5 If an entitled person expressly waives his right to file a complaint, his waiver is final.

Art. 31

The right to file a complaint expires after three months. The period begins on the day that the person entitled to file a complaint discovers the identity of suspect.

Art. 32

If an entitled person files a complaint against one person who participated in the act, all the participants become liable to prosecution.

Art. 33

1 The person entitled to file a complaint may withdraw the complaint at any time before notice is given of the judgment of the second cantonal instance.

2 Any person who has withdrawn his complaint may not file it again.

3 If the entitled person withdraws his complaint against one suspect, the withdrawal applies to all suspects.

4 If a suspect objects to the withdrawal of the complaint against him, the withdrawal does not apply to him.

Title Three: Sentences and Measures
Chapter One: Sentences
Section One: Monetary Penalties and Custodial Sentences

Art. 34

1 Unless the law provides otherwise, a monetary penalty amounts to a minimum of three and a maximum of 180 daily penalty units. The court decides on the number according to the culpability of the offender.

2 A daily penalty unit normally amounts to a minimum of 30 and a maximum of 3000 francs. By way of exception, if the offender’s personal or financial circumstances so require, the value of the daily penalty unit may be reduced to 10 francs. The court decides on the value of the daily penalty unit according to the personal and financial circumstances of the offender at the time of conviction, and in particular according to his income and capital, living expenses, any maintenance or support obligations and the minimum subsistence level.

3 The authorities of the Confederation, the cantons and the communes shall provide the information required to determine the daily penalty unit.

4 The number and value of the daily penalty units must be stated in the judgment.

Art. 35

1 The executive authority shall specify that the offender make payment within a period of between one and six months. It may stipulate payment by instalments and on request may extend the period allowed.

2 If there is justified suspicion that the offender will fail to pay the monetary penalty, the executive authority may request immediate payment or the provision of security.

3 If the offender fails to pay the monetary penalty within the specified period, the executive authority shall instruct the debt collection proceedings provided their success is expected.

Art. 36

1 In the event that the offender fails to pay the monetary penalty and it is not recoverable through debt collection procedures (Art. 35 para. 3), the offender shall serve a custodial sentence as the alternative to the monetary penalty. A daily penalty unit corresponds to one day in custody. The retrospective payment of the monetary penalty leads to a corresponding reduction in the alternative custodial sentence.

2 If the monetary penalty has been imposed by an administrative authority, the court decides on the alternative custodial sentence.

3–5 ...

Art. 37–39

Art. 40

1 The minimum term of a custodial sentence is three days; a shorter custodial sentence in lieu of an unpaid monetary penalty (Art. 36) or fine (Art. 106) is reserved.

2 The maximum term of a custodial sentence is 20 years. Where the law expressly provides, the custodial sentence is for life

Art. 41

1 The court may impose a custodial sentence instead of a monetary penalty if:

   a. a custodial sentence appears appropriate in order to prevent the offender from committing further felonies or misdemeanours; or

   b. it is anticipated that it will not be possible to enforce a monetary penalty.

2 The court must explain why it has decided to impose a custodial sentence.

3 The right is reserved to impose a custodial sentence instead of an unpaid monetary penalty (Art. 36).

Section Two: Suspended and Partially Suspended Sentences

Art. 42

1. Suspended sentences

1 The court shall normally suspend the execution of a monetary penalty or a custodial sentence of no more than two years unless an unsuspended sentence appears to be necessary in order to prevent the offender from committing further felonies or misdemeanours.

2 If the offender received a suspended or unsuspended custodial sentence of more than six months within the five years prior to the offence, the sentence may only be suspended where the circumstances are especially favourable.

3 The suspension of the execution of a sentence may also be refused if the offender has failed to make a reasonable effort to compensate for any loss or damage he may have caused.

4 A suspended sentence may be combined with a fine in accordance with Article 106.

Art. 43

2. Partially suspended custodial sentences

1 The court may partially suspend the execution of a custodial sentence of at least one year and no more than three years if this is necessary in order to take sufficient account of the culpability of the offender.

2 The part of the sentence that must be executed immediately may not exceed one half of the sentence.

3 Both the suspended and the unsuspended part must amount to at least six months. The provisions on the granting of parole (Art. 86) do not apply to the unsuspended part of the sentence.

Art. 44

3. General provisions

1 If the court suspends the execution of a sentence in full or in part, it shall make the offender subject to a probationary period of from two to five years.

The court may order probation assistance and impose conduct orders for the duration of the probationary period.

The court shall explain the importance and the consequences of the suspended and partially suspended sentence to the offender.

Art. 45

If the offender is of good conduct until the expiry of the probationary period, the postponed sentence is not executed.

Art. 46

1 If the offender commits a felony or misdemeanour during the probationary period and if it therefore must be expected that he will commit further offences, the court shall revoke the suspended sentence or the suspended part of the sentence. If the revoked sentence and the new sentence are of the same type, they shall form a cumulative sentence in analogous application of Article 49.36

2 If it is not expected that the offender will commit further offences, the court shall not revoke the suspended sentence. It may admonish the offender or extend the probationary period by up to one half of the duration specified in the judgment. The court may order probation assistance and impose conduct orders for the duration of the extended probationary period. If the extension begins after the expiry of the probationary period, the extended period begins on the day that it is ordered.

3 The court that judges the new felony or misdemeanour also decides on revocation.

4 If the offender fails to attend for probation assistance or disregards the conduct orders, Article 95 paragraphs 3–5 apply.

5 Revocation may no longer be ordered if three years have elapsed since the expiry of the probationary period.

Section Three: Determination of the Sentence

Art. 47

1 The court determines the sentence according to the culpability of the offender. It takes account of the previous conduct and the personal circumstances of the offender as well as the effect that the sentence will have on his life.

2 Culpability is assessed according to the seriousness of the damage or danger to the legal interest concerned, the reprehensibility of the conduct, the offender's motives and aims, and the extent to which the offender, in view of the personal and external circumstances, could have avoided causing the danger or damage.

Art. 48
The court shall reduce the sentence if:

a. the offender acted:
   1. for honourable motives,
   2. while in serious distress,
   3. while of the view that he was under serious threat,
   4. at the behest of a person whom he was duty bound to obey or on whom he was dependent;

b. the offender was seriously provoked by the conduct of the person suffering injury;

c. the offender acted in a state of extreme emotion that was excusable in the circumstances or while under serious psychological stress;

d. the offender has shown genuine remorse, and in particular has made reparation for the injury, damage or loss caused, insofar as this may reasonably be expected of him;

e. the need for punishment has been substantially reduced due to the time that has elapsed since the offence and the offender has been of good conduct in this period.

Art. 48a

1 If the court chooses to reduce the sentence, it is not bound by the minimum penalty that the offence carries.

2 The court may impose a different form of penalty from that which the offence carries, but remains bound by the statutory maximum and minimum levels for that form of penalty.

Art. 49

1 If the offender, by committing one or more offences, has fulfilled the requirements for two or more penalties of the same form, the court shall impose the sentence for the most serious offence at an appropriately increased level. It may not, however, increase the maximum level of the sentence by more than half, and it is bound by the statutory maximum for that form of penalty.

2 If the court must pass sentence on an offence that the offender committed before he was sentenced for a different offence, it shall determine
3. If the offender committed one or more offences before reaching the age of 18, the court shall determine the cumulative sentence in accordance with paragraphs 1 and 2 such that it is not more severe than it would have been had sentences been imposed separately.

Art. 50
Where a judgment must be justified, the court shall also specify the circumstances taken into account in determining the sentence and their weighting.

Art. 51
When determining the sentence, the court shall take account of any time spent on remand that the offender has served in respect of the proceedings in question or any other proceedings. One day in detention corresponds to one daily penalty unit of a monetary penalty.37

Section Four:
Exemption from Punishment and the Suspension and Abandonment of Proceedings38

Art. 52
The competent authority shall refrain from prosecuting the offender, bringing him to court or punishing him if the level of culpability and consequences of the offence are negligible.

Art. 5339
If the offender has made reparation for the loss, damage or injury or made every reasonable effort to right the wrong that he has caused, the competent authority shall refrain from prosecuting him, bringing him to court or punishing him if:

38 Amended by No I 3 of the FA of 14 Dec. 2018 on Improved Protection for Victims of Violence, in force since 1 July 2020 (AS 2019 2273; BBl 2017 7307).
40 Amended by No I 1 of the FA of 14 Dec. 2018 on the Amendment of Reparation Arrangements, in force since 1 July 2019 (AS 2019 1809; BBl 2018 3757 4925).
a. a suspended custodial sentence not exceeding one year, a suspended monetary penalty or a fine are suitable as a penalty;
b. the interest in prosecution of the general public and of the persons harmed are negligible; and
c. the offender has admitted the offence.

Art. 54
If the offender is so seriously affected by the immediate consequences of his act that a penalty would be inappropriate, the responsible authorities shall refrain from prosecuting him, bringing him to court or punishing him.

Art. 55
1 The court shall refrain from revoking a suspended sentence and in the case of the parole from a recall if the requirements for an exemption from punishment are met.
2 The cantons designate the bodies responsible for the administration of criminal justice as the competent authorities under Articles 52, 53 and 54.

Art. 55a41
1 In a case of common assault (Art. 123 no 2 para. 3–5), repeated acts of aggression (Art. 126 para. 2 let. b, bbis and c), threatening behaviour (Art. 180 para. 2) and coercion (Art. 181), the public prosecutor or the court may suspend the proceedings if:43
   a.44 the victim:
      1. is the spouse of the offender and the offence was committed during the marriage or within a year of divorce, or
      2. is the registered partner of the offender and the offence was committed during the registered partnership or within a year of its dissolution, or
      3. is the hetero- or homosexual partner of the offender or the ex-partner of the offender if they have been separated for less than a year; and

41 Inserted by No I of the FA of 3 Oct. 2003 (Prosecution of Offences within Marriage or Registered Partnerships), in force since 1 April 2004 (AS 2004 1403 1407; BBl 2003 1909 1937).
43 Amended by No I 3 of the FA of 14 Dec. 2018 on Improved Protection for Victims of Violence, in force since 1 July 2020 (AS 2019 2273; BBl 2017 7307).
b. the victim or, if he or she lacks legal capacity, his or her legal representative requests this to be done; and

c. suspension appears appropriate in order to stabilise or improve the victim’s situation.

2 The public prosecutor or the court may during the period of suspension require the accused to attend a course on violence prevention. The public prosecutor or the court shall notify the authority or organisation competent under cantonal law for matters relating to domestic violence about the measures taken.

3 Suspension is not permitted if:

a. the accused has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanour against life and limb, against liberty, or against sexual integrity;

b. he or she has received a sentence or been made subject to a measure; and

c. the victim of the offence is a person listed in paragraph 1 letter a.

4 Suspension is limited to six months. The public prosecutor or the court shall resume the proceedings if the victim or, if he or she lacks legal capacity, his or her legal representative requests this to be done or it transpires that the suspension has neither stabilised nor improved the victim’s situation.

5 Before the suspension ends, the public prosecutor or the court shall conduct an assessment. If the victim’s situation has stabilised or improved, it shall order the abandonment of the proceedings.

Chapter Two: Measures
Section One: Therapeutic Measures and Indefinite Incarceration

Art. 56

1. Principles

1 A measure is ordered if:

45 Amended by No I 3 of the FA of 14 Dec. 2018 on Improved Protection for Victims of Violence, in force since 1 July 2020 (AS 2019 2273; BBl 2017 7307).
a. a penalty alone is not sufficient to counter the risk of further offending by the offender;

b. the offender requires treatment or treatment is required in the interest of public safety; and

c. the requirements of Articles 59–61, 63 or 64 are fulfilled.

2 The ordering of a measure requires that the related intervention in the personal rights of the offender is not unreasonable in view of the probability and seriousness of additional offences.

3 In ordering a measure under Articles 59–61, 63 and 64 and in modifying the sanction in accordance with Article 65, the court shall base its decision on an expert assessment. This shall provide an opinion on:

a. the necessity and the prospects of success of any treatment of the offender;

b. the nature and the probability of possible additional offences; and

c. the ways in which the measure may be implemented.

4 If the offender has committed an offence in terms of Article 64 paragraph 1, the assessment must be conducted by an expert who has neither treated the offender before nor been responsible in any other way for his care.

4bis If consideration is given to ordering lifelong incarceration in accordance with Article 64 paragraph 1bis, the court shall base its decision on reports from at least two experienced specialists who are independent of each other and who have neither treated the offender nor been responsible in any other way for his care.51

5 Normally the court only orders a measure if a suitable institution is available.

6 Where the requirements for a measure are no longer fulfilled, it is revoked.

Art. 56a

1 If two or more measures are equally suitable but only one is necessary, the court shall order the measure that is more convenient for the offender.

2 If two or more measures are necessary, the court may order these concurrently.

51 Inserted by No I of the FA of 21 Dec. 2007 (Indefinite Incarceration of Extremely Dangerous Offenders), in force since 1 Aug. 2008 (AS 2008 2961 2964; BBl 2006 889).
Art. 57

1 If the requirements for both a penalty and a measure are fulfilled, the court shall order both sanctions.

2 The implementation of a measure under Articles 59–61 takes precedence over a custodial sentence that is imposed at the same time or which is executed through revocation of a suspended sentence or recall to custody. Likewise, the reactivation of the execution of a measure in accordance with Article 62a takes precedence over a cumulative sentence imposed at the same time.

3 The deprivation of liberty associated with the measure must be taken into account in determining the penalty.

2 The therapeutic institutions in terms of Articles 59–61 must be managed separately from penal institutions.

Art. 59

1 If the offender is suffering from a serious mental disorder, the court may order in-patient treatment if:

a. the offender's mental disorder was a factor in a felony or misdemeanour that he committed; and

b. it is expected that the measure will reduce the risk of further offences being committed in which his mental disorder is a factor.

2 The in-patient treatment is carried out in an appropriate psychiatric institution or therapeutic institution.

3 If there is a risk of the offender absconding or committing further offences, he shall be treated in a secure institution. He may also be treated in a penal institution in accordance with Article 76 paragraph 2, provided it is guaranteed that the required therapeutic treatment can be provided by specialist staff.53

4 The deprivation of liberty associated with in-patient treatment normally amounts to a maximum of five years. If the requirements for parole have not yet been fulfilled after five years and if it is expected that the measure will reduce the risk of further felonies or misdemeanours being committed in which his mental disorder is a factor, the court may at the request of the executive authority order the extension of the measure for a maximum of five years in any case.

Art. 60

1 If the offender is dependent on addictive substances or in any other way dependent, the court may order in-patient treatment if:
   a. the offender's dependence was a factor in the felony or misdemeanour that he committed; and
   b. it is expected that treatment will reduce the risk of further offences being committed in which his dependence is a factor.

2 The court shall take account of the offender's request for and readiness to undergo treatment.

3 The treatment is carried out in a specialised institution or, if necessary, in a psychiatric hospital. It must be adjusted to the special needs of the offender and the state of his health.

4 The deprivation of liberty associated with in-patient treatment shall normally amount to a maximum of three years. If the requirements for parole have not yet been fulfilled after three years and if it is expected that the measure will reduce the risk of further felonies or misdemeanours being committed in which his dependence is a factor, the court may, at the request of the executive authority on one occasion only, order the extension of the measure for a maximum of one further year. In the event of an extension and the recall to custody following parole, the deprivation of liberty associated with the measure may not exceed a maximum of six years.

Art. 61

1 If the offender was under 25 years of age at the time of the offence and if he is suffering from a serious developmental disorder, the court may commit him to an institution for young adults if:
   a. the offender's developmental disorder was a factor in the felony or misdemeanour that he committed; and
   b. it is expected that the measure will reduce the risk of further offences being committed in which his developmental disorder is a factor.

2 Institutions for young adults must be managed separately from other institutions and facilities under this Code.

3 The offender should be taught the skills needed to live independently and without further offending. In particular, he should be encouraged to undergo basic and advanced vocational and professional training.

4 The deprivation of liberty associated with the measure amounts to a maximum of four years. In the event of the recall to custody following release on parole, it may not exceed a maximum of six years. The measure must be revoked when the offender reaches the age of 30.

5 If the offender was convicted of an offence committed before he was 18 years of age, the measure may be implemented in an institution for minors.

Art. 62

1 The offender is released on parole from undergoing an in-patient measure as soon as his condition justifies his being given the liberty to prove himself.

2 In the case of release on parole from a measure under Article 59, the probationary period amounts to one to five years, and in the case of release on parole from a measure under Articles 60 and 61, from one to three years.

3 The person released on parole may be required to undergo out-patient treatment during the probationary period. The executive authority may order probation assistance and issue conduct orders for the duration the probationary period.

4 If on expiry of the probationary period, a continuation of the out-patient treatment, the probation assistance or the conduct orders is considered necessary in order to reduce the risk of further felonies and misdemeanours being committed that are associated with the condition of the person released on parole, the court may at the request of the executive authority extend the probationary period as follows:
   a. by one to five years in the case of release on parole from a measure in accordance with Article 59;
   b. by one to three years in the case of release on parole from a measure under Articles 60 and 61.

5 The probationary period following release on parole from a measure under Articles 60 and 61 may not exceed six years.

6 If the offender has committed an offence in terms of Article 64 paragraph 1, the probationary period may be extended as often as is considered necessary to prevent further such offences being committed.

Art. 62a

1 If a person released on parole commits an offence during the probationary period and thus demonstrates that the risk that the measure was intended to reduce is still present, the court assessing the new offence may, after consulting the executive authority:
   a. order his recall to custody;
   b. revoke the measure and, provided the relevant requirements are fulfilled, order a new measure; or
c. revoke the measure and, provided the relevant requirements are fulfilled, order the execution of a custodial sentence.

2 If as a result of the new offence the requirements for an unsuspended custodial sentence are fulfilled and if this sentence runs concurrently with a custodial sentence that has been suspended to give precedence to the measure, the court shall impose a cumulative sentence in application of Article 49.

3 If as a result of the conduct of the person released on parole during the probationary period there is a serious expectation that he could commit an offence in terms of Article 64 paragraph 1, the court that ordered the measure may, at the request of the executive authority, order a recall to custody.

4 For a measure under Article 59, the recall to custody is for a maximum period of five years, and for measures under Articles 60 and 61 for a maximum period of two years.

5 If the court decides against a recall to custody or a new measure, it may:
   a. admonish the person released on parole;
   b. order out-patient treatment or probation assistance;
   c. impose conduct orders on the person released on parole; and
   d. extend the probationary period by from one to five years in the case of a measure under Article 59, and by from one to three years in the case of a measure under Articles 60 and 61.

6 If the person released on parole fails to comply with the terms of probation assistance or disregards the conduct orders, Article 95 paragraphs 3–5 applies.

Art. 62b

1 If the person released on parole successfully completes the probationary period, he is granted final release.

2 The offender is granted final release if the maximum duration of a measure under Articles 60 and 61 is reached and the requirements for the parole apply.

3 If deprivation of liberty associated with the measure is for a shorter period than the suspended custodial sentence, the remainder of the sentence is not executed.

Art. 62c

1 A measure is terminated, if:
   a. its implementation or continuation appears to have no prospect of success;
b. the maximum duration under Articles 60 and 61 has been reached and the requirements for the parole do not apply; or

c. a suitable institution does not exist or no longer exists.

2 If the deprivation of liberty associated with the measure is for a shorter period than the suspended custodial sentence, the remainder of the sentence is executed. If the requirements for parole or a suspended custodial sentence apply in relation to the remainder of the sentence, execution of the sentence is suspended.

3 Instead of ordering the execution of the sentence, the court may order another measure if it is to be expected that such a measure will reduce the risk of the offender committing further felonies and misdemeanours in which his condition is a factor.

4 If there is a serious expectation that if a measure ordered in respect of an offence in terms of Article 64 paragraph 1 is terminated, the offender will commit further such offences, the court may at the request of the executive authority order his indefinite incarceration.

5 If the competent authority regards an adult protection measure to be appropriate on the termination of the measure, it shall inform the adult protection authority of this.

6 Furthermore, the court may terminate an in-patient therapeutic measure before or during its implementation and order another in-patient therapeutic measure in its place if it is expected that the new measure has a significantly better chance of reducing the risk of the offender committing further felonies and misdemeanours in which his condition is a factor.

Art. 62

1 The competent authority shall on request or ex officio consider whether and when the offender should be released on parole from the implementation of the measure or whether the measure should be terminated. It makes a decision on such matters at least once each year. It shall first grant a hearing to the offender and obtain a report from the governing body of the relevant institution.

2 If the offender committed an offence in terms of Article 64 paragraph 1, the competent authority shall reach its decision on the basis of the expert opinion of an independent specialist and after hearing a committee comprising representatives of the prosecution services, the execution authorities and one or more psychiatrists. The specialists and psychiatrists concerned must not be those responsible for the treatment or care of the offender.

Art. 63

1 If the offender is suffering from a serious mental disorder or if he is dependent on addictive substances or in any other way, the court may order that he receive out-patient rather than in-patient treatment if:

a. the offender commits an offence in which his condition is a factor; and

b. it is expected that the measure will reduce the risk of further offences being committed in which his condition is a factor.

2 The court may defer the execution of an unsuspended custodial sentence imposed at the same time, a suspended custodial sentence due for execution following revocation of suspension and the remainder of a sentence due for execution following a recall to custody to give precedence to out-patient treatment in order to take account of the form of the treatment. It may order probation assistance and issue conduct orders for the duration the treatment.

3 The competent authority may order the offender to be treated temporarily as an in-patient if this is required in order to initiate the out-patient treatment. The period of in-patient treatment may not exceed two months.

4 The period of out-patient treatment may not normally exceed five years. If the continuation of the out-patient treatment is considered necessary at the end of the five-year period in order to reduce the risk of further felonies and misdemeanours in which a mental disorder is a factor, the court may at the request of the executive authority continue the treatment for a further period of from one to five years.

1 The competent authority shall assess at least once each year whether the out-patient treatment should be continued or terminated. It shall first grant a hearing to the offender and obtain a report from the therapists.

2 The out-patient treatment is terminated by the competent authority if:

a. it has been successfully completed;

b. its continuation appears to have no prospect of success; or

c. the statutory maximum duration for the treatment of an alcohol, drug or therapeutic product dependent person has been reached.

3 If the offender commits a further offence during the out-patient treatment and thus demonstrates that this form of treatment will probably be unsuccessful in averting the risk offences being committed in which the condition of the offender is a factor, the unsuccessful treatment shall be terminated by order of the court assessing the new offence.

4 If the offender fails to comply with the conditions of probation assistance or if he disregards the conduct orders, Article 95 paragraphs 3–5 applies.
Art. 63b

1 If the out-patient treatment has been successfully completed, the suspended custodial sentence is not executed.

2 If out-patient treatment is terminated due to there being no prospect of success (Art. 63a para. 2 let. b), the statutory maximum duration being reached (Art. 63a para. 2 let. c) or its being unsuccessful (Art. 63a para. 3), the suspended custodial sentence is executed.

3 If out-patient treatment conducted while the offender is at liberty is considered a risk to third parties, the suspended custodial sentence is executed and the out-patient treatment continued while the custodial sentence is being served.

4 The court decides on the extent to which the deprivation of liberty associated with the out-patient treatment is taken into account in determining the custodial sentence. If the requirements for parole or a suspended custodial sentence apply in relation to the remainder of the sentence, execution of the sentence is suspended.

5 Instead of the execution of the sentence the court may order an inpatient therapeutic measure under Articles 59–61 if it is to be expected that this will reduce the risk of the offender committing further felonies or misdemeanours in which his condition is a factor.

Art. 64

1 The court shall order indefinite incarceration if the offender has committed murder, intentional homicide, serious assault, rape, robbery, hostage taking, arson, endangering life or another offence that carries a maximum sentence of five or more years by which he has caused or intended to cause serious detriment to the physical, psychological or sexual integrity of another person, and if:

   a. due to the personality traits of the offender, the circumstances of the offence and his general personal circumstances, it is seriously expected that he will commit further offences of the same type; or

   b. due to a permanent or long-term mental disorder of considerable gravity that was a factor in the offence, it is seriously expected that the offender will commit further offences of the same type and the ordering of a measure in accordance with Article 59 does not promise any success.

1bis The court shall order lifelong incarceration if the offender has committed murder, intentional homicide, serious assault, robbery, rape, indecent assault, false imprisonment or abduction, hostage-taking, enforced disappearance of persons, trafficking in human beings, genocide, or a felony under the heading of crimes against humanity or war crimes (Title Twelve) and if the following requirements are met:\(^56\)

a. the offender, by committing the offence, caused or intended to cause serious detriment to the physical, psychological or sexual integrity of another person.

b. There is a high probability that the offender will commit one of these felonies again.

c. The offender is assessed as being permanently untreatable, as the treatment offers no long-term prospect of success.\(^57\)

2 The execution of the custodial sentence takes priority over indefinite incarceration. The provisions on parole in relation to the custodial sentence (Art. 86–88) do not apply.\(^58\)

3 If during the execution of the custodial sentence, it is expected that the offender will prove to be of good behaviour when at liberty, the court shall order parole from the custodial sentence at the earliest from the time when the offender has served two thirds of a specific custodial sentence or 15 years of a life sentence. The court that ordered indefinite incarceration is responsible for the decision on parole. In addition, Article 64\(^a\) applies.\(^59\)

4 Indefinite incarceration is executed in a therapeutic institution or in a penal institution in accordance with Article 76 paragraph 2. Public safety must be guaranteed. The offender receives psychiatric care if this is necessary.

Art. 64\(^a\)

1 The offender is released on parole from indefinite incarceration in accordance with Article 64 paragraph 1 as soon as it is expected that he will be of good behaviour when at liberty.\(^60\) The probationary period amounts to two to five years. For the duration of the probationary period, probation assistance may be ordered and conduct orders may be imposed.

\(^{58}\) Amended by No I of the FA of 24 March 2006 (Revision of the Law on Sanctions and the Register of Convictions), in force since 1 Jan. 2007 (AS 2006 3539 3544; BBl 2005 4689).

\(^{59}\) Amended by No I of the FA of 24 March 2006 (Revision of the Law on Sanctions and the Register of Convictions), in force since 1 Jan. 2007 (AS 2006 3539 3544; BBl 2005 4689).

\(^{60}\) Amended by No I of the FA of 21 Dec. 2007 (Indefinite Incarceration of Extremely Dangerous Offenders), in force since 1 Aug. 2008 (AS 2008 2961 2964; BBl 2006 889).
2 If on expiry of the probationary period a continuation of the probation assistance or the conduct orders is considered to be necessary in order to reduce the risk of further offences in terms of Article 64 paragraph 1, the court may at the request of the executive authority extend the probationary period by a further two to five years.

3 If due to his conduct during the probationary period, it is seriously expected that the offender may commit further offences in terms of Article 64 paragraph 1, the court at the request of the executive authority shall order his recall to custody.

4 If the offender when released on parole fails to comply with the conditions of probation assistance or disregards the conduct orders, Article 95 paragraphs 3–5 applies.

5 If the offender when released on parole is of good behaviour until the expiry of the probationary period, he is granted final release.

Art. 64b

Consideration of release

1 The competent authority shall consider on request or ex officio:
   a. at least once annually, and for the first time after two years have lapsed, whether and when the offender may be released on parole from indefinite incarceration (Art. 64a para. 1);
   b. at least every two years, and for the first time before indefinite incarceration takes effect, whether the requirements for an in-patient therapeutic treatment have been fulfilled and whether a related application should therefore be made to the competent court (Art. 65 para. 1).

2 The competent authority makes its decisions in terms of paragraph 1 based on:
   a. a report from the institution board;
   b. an independent specialist assessment in terms of Article 56 paragraph 4;
   c. its hearing of a committee in accordance with Article 62d paragraph 2;
   d. its hearing of the offender.

Art. 64c

1 In cases of lifelong incarceration under Article 64 paragraph 1bis the competent authority shall consider ex officio or on application whether there are any new scientific findings that lead to the expectation that the offender can be treated so that he will no longer pose a risk to the public. It decides on the basis of a report from the Federal Commission for the Assessment of the Treatability of Offenders subject to Lifelong Incarceration.

2 If the competent authority concludes that the offender can be treated, it shall offer him the option of treatment. Treatment is carried out in a secure institution. Until the order imposing lifelong incarceration has been revoked in accordance with paragraph 3, the provisions on the execution of lifelong incarceration continue to apply.

3 If the treatment demonstrates that the risk posed by the offender has been considerably reduced and may be reduced to the extent that he no longer poses a risk to the public, the court shall revoke the order imposing lifelong incarceration and order an in-patient therapeutic measure in accordance with Articles 59–61 in a secure institution.

4 The court may grant the offender parole from lifelong incarceration if he no longer poses a risk to the public due to old age, serious illness or on other grounds. Parole is governed by Article 64a.

5 The court that ordered lifelong incarceration is responsible for deciding whether parole should be granted. It bases its decision on reports from at least two experienced specialists who are independent of each other and who have neither treated the offender nor been responsible in any other way for his care.

6 Paragraphs 1 and 2 also apply during the execution of the custodial sentence that precedes lifelong incarceration. Lifelong incarceration shall be revoked in accordance with paragraph 3 at the earliest when the offender has served two thirds of a specific custodial sentence or 15 years of a life sentence.

Art. 65

1 If an offender fulfils the requirements for an in-patient therapeutic measure in terms of Articles 59–61 before or during the execution of a custodial sentence or of indefinite incarceration in accordance with Article 64 paragraph 1, the court may order this measure retrospectively. The competent court is the court that imposed the sentence or ordered indefinite incarceration. The execution of any remainder of the sentence is deferred.

63 Amended by No I of the FA of 21 Dec. 2007 (Indefinite Incarceration of Extremely Dangerous Offenders), in force since 1 Aug. 2008 (AS 2008 2961 2964; BBl 2006 889).
2 If during the execution of the custodial sentence, new information or evidence comes to light to the effect that the requirements for indefinite incarceration are fulfilled and already applied at the time of conviction although the court could not have had knowledge of this, the court may order indefinite incarceration retrospectively. Jurisdiction and procedure are determined by the rules that apply to re-opening a case.64

Section Two: Other Measures

Art. 66

1 If there is the risk that a person will commit a felony or misdemeanour that he has threatened to commit, or if a person convicted of a felony or of a misdemeanour indicates the clear intention to repeat the offence, the court may, at the request of the person threatened, obtain a promise from the offender that he will not commit the offence and require him to deposit appropriate security therefor.

2 If he refuses to make the promise, or fails to deposit the security within the specified period, the court may require him to make the promise or deposit the security by imposing a period of detention for security reasons. The period of detention for security reasons may not be for more than two months. It is executed in the same way as a short custodial sentence (Art. 7965).

3 If the offender commits the felony or the misdemeanour within two years of depositing the security, the security is forfeited to the State. If no offence is committed, the security is returned.

Art. 66a66

1 The court shall expel foreign nationals from Switzerland for a period of 5–15 years if they are convicted of any of the following offences, irrespective of the sentence imposed:

   a. intentional homicide (Art. 111), murder (Art. 112), manslaughter (Art. 113), inciting and assisting suicide (Art. 115), illegal abortion (Art. 118 para. 1 and 2);

   b. serious assault (Art. 122), female genital mutilation (Art. 124 para. 1), abandonment (Art. 127), endangering life (Art. 129), attack (Art. 134);

64 Inserted by No I of the FA of 24 March 2006 (Revision of the Law on Sanctions and the Register of Convictions), in force since 1 Jan. 2007 (AS 2006 3539 3544; BBl 2005 4689).
65 This Art. has been repealed (AS 2016 1249; BBl 2012 4721).
c. aggravated misappropriation (Art. 138 para. 2), aggravated theft (Art. 139 para. 2 and 3), robbery (Art. 140), fraud for commercial gain (Art. 146 para. 2), computer fraud for commercial gain (Art. 147 para. 2), misuse of a cheque card or credit card for commercial gain (Art. 148 para. 2), aggravated extortion (Art. 156 para. 2–4), profiteering for commercial gain (Art. 157 para. 2), handling stolen goods for commercial gain (Art. 160 para. 2);

d. theft (Art. 139) in conjunction with unlawful entry (Art. 186);

e. fraud (Art. 146 para. 1) related to social insurance or social assistance, unlawful claims for social insurance or social assistance benefits (Art. 148a para. 1);

f. fraud (Art. 146 para. 1), fraud in relation to administrative services and charges (Art. 14 para. 1, 2 and 4 of the Federal Act of 22 March 1974 on Administrative Criminal Law) or tax fraud, misappropriation of taxes deducted at source or any other offence related to public charges that carries a maximum penalty of a one-year custodial sentence or more;

g. forced marriage, forced registered partnership (Art. 181a), trafficking in human beings (Art. 182), false imprisonment and abduction (Art. 183), aggravated false imprisonment and abduction (Art. 184), hostage taking (Art. 185);

h. sexual acts with children (Art. 187 para. 1), indecent assault (Art. 189), rape (Art. 190), sexual acts with persons incapable of judgement or resistance (Art. 191), encouraging prostitution (Art. 195), pornography (Art. 197 para. 4 second sentence);

i. arson (Art. 221 para. 1 and 2), wilfully causing an explosion (Art. 223 para. 1 no 1), misuse of explosives and toxic gases with criminal intent (Art. 224 para. 1), wilfully causing danger without criminal intent (Art. 225 para. 1), manufacture, concealment and transport of explosives and toxic gases (Art. 226), causing danger by means of nuclear energy, radioactivity and ionising radiation (Art. 226bis), preparatory offences (Art. 226ter), wilfully causing a flood or collapse (Art. 227 para. 1 no 1), criminal damage to electrical installations, and hydraulic or protective structures (Art. 228 para. 1 no 1);

j. wilfully causing danger by means of genetically modified or pathogenic organisms (Art. 230bis para. 1), wilful transmission of human diseases (Art. 231 para. 1), wilful contamination of drinking water (Art. 234 para. 1);
k. aggravated disruption of public traffic (Art. 237 para. 1 no 2), wilful disruption of rail traffic (Art. 238 para. 1);

l.69 acts preparatory to the commission of an offence (Art. 260\textsuperscript{bis} para. 1 and 3), participation in or support for a criminal or terrorist organisation (Art. 260\textsuperscript{ter}), endangering public safety with weapons (Art. 260\textsuperscript{quater}), financing terrorism (Art. 260\textsuperscript{quinquies}) or recruiting, training and travelling with a view to committing a terrorist offence (Art. 260\textsuperscript{sexies});

m. genocide (Art. 264), felonies against humanity (Art. 264\textsuperscript{a}), serious violations of the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949\textsuperscript{70} (Art. 264\textsuperscript{c}), other war crimes (Art. 264\textsuperscript{d}–264\textsuperscript{h});

n. wilful violations of Article 116 paragraph 3 or Article 118 paragraph 3 of the Foreign Nationals Act of 16 December 2005\textsuperscript{71};

o. violation of Article 19 paragraph 2 or 20 paragraph 2 of the Narcotics Act of 3 October 1951\textsuperscript{72} (NarcA);

p.\textsuperscript{73} violation of Article 74 paragraph 4 of the Intelligence Service Act of 25 September 2015\textsuperscript{74} (IntelSA).

2 The court may by way of exception refrain from ordering expulsion if it would cause serious personal hardship to the foreign national concerned and the public interest in expulsion does not outweigh the private interest of the foreign national in remaining in Switzerland. In such cases, account must be taken of the special position of foreign nationals who were born or have grown up in Switzerland.

3 The court may also refrain from ordering expulsion if the offence was committed in justifiable self-defence (Art. 16 para. 1) or in a justifiable situation of necessity (Art. 18 para. 1).

Art. 66\textsuperscript{a}bis\textsuperscript{75}

b. Non-mandatory expulsion

70 SR 0.518.12, 0.518.23, 0.518.42, 0.518.51

71 SR 142.20

72 SR 812.121

74 SR 121

The court may expel a foreign national from Switzerland for 3–15 years if he is convicted and sentenced or made subject to a measure under Articles 59–61 or 64 for a felony or misdemeanour that is not listed in Article 66a.

Art. 66b

1. Any person who has been made subject to an expulsion order who commits a further offence that meets the requirements for expulsion under Article 66a shall be expelled again for 20 years.

2. Lifelong expulsion may be ordered if the offender commits the new offence while the previous expulsion order is still in effect.

Art. 66c

1. The expulsion order applies from the date on which the judgment becomes legally enforceable.

2. Before enforcing the expulsion order, any unsuspended sentences or parts thereof and any custodial measures must be executed.

3. The expulsion order is enforced as soon as the offender is conditionally or finally released from the execution of criminal penalties or measures or the custodial measure is revoked, provided that the remainder of sentence need not be executed and no other such measure has been ordered.

4. If a person subject to an expulsion order is transferred to his home country for the execution of criminal penalties or measures, the expulsion order applies on such transfer.

5. The duration of expulsion is calculated from the day on which the offender leaves Switzerland.

Art. 66d\footnote{78}
    \item The enforcement of a mandatory expulsion order under Article 66a may only be deferred if:\footnote{79}
        \begin{enumerate}[a.]
            \item the person concerned is recognised by Switzerland as a refugee and, if expelled, his life or his freedom would be endangered due to his race, religion, nationality, affiliation to a specific social group or his political views; the foregoing does not apply to a refugee who may not invoke the ban on refoulement under Article 5 paragraph 2 of the Asylum Act of 26 June 1998\footnote{80};
            \item expulsion would violate other mandatory provisions of international law.

2 In reaching its decision, the competent cantonal authority must assume that expulsion to a state deemed safe by the Federal Council in accordance with Article 6a paragraph 2 of the Asylum Act of 26 June 1998 does not violate Article 25 paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Federal Constitution.

Art. 67\footnote{81}
    \item If a person has committed a felony or misdemeanour while carrying on a professional activity or an organised non-professional activity, and has as a result received a custodial sentence in excess of six months, and if there is a risk that he will abuse his activity in order to commit a further felony or misdemeanour, the court may prohibit him totally or partially from carrying on this activity or comparable activities for a period of six months to five years.\footnote{82}
    \item If a person has committed a felony or misdemeanour against a minor or another especially vulnerable person and if there is a risk that in carrying on a professional activity or an organised non-professional activity that involves regular contact with any minors or with other especially vulnerable persons he will commit further offences of this nature, the court may prohibit him from carrying on the activity concerned for one to ten years.

after the period of ten years. At the request of the executive authority, it may extend a prohibition order that is limited in time in terms of paragraph 2 by a maximum of five years on any one occasion if this is deemed necessary to prevent the offender from committing further felonies and misdemeanours of the type that led to the prohibition order.\textsuperscript{83}

If a person receives a sentence or is made subject to a measure under Articles 59–61, 63 or 64 for any of the following offences, the court shall prohibit him for the rest of his life from carrying on any professional activity or organised non-professional activity that involves regular contact with any minors:

a. trafficking in human beings (Art. 182) where the offence was committed for the purpose of the sexual exploitation of a minor;

b. sexual acts with children (Art. 187), sexual acts with dependent persons (Art. 188) or sexual acts with minors against payment (Art. 196);

c. indecent assault (Art. 189), rape (Art. 190), sexual acts with persons incapable of judgement or resistance (Art. 191), sexual acts with persons in institutional care, prisoners and persons on remand (Art. 192), exploitation of a person in a position of need or dependency (Art. 193), indecent conduct (Art. 194), encouraging prostitution (Art. 195) or sexual harassment (Art. 198), where the offence is committed against or in front of a minor;

d. pornography (Art. 197):
   1. under Article 197 paragraph 1 or 3,
   2. under Article 197 paragraph 4 or 5, where the content of the items or performances involved sexual acts with minors.\textsuperscript{84}

If a person receives a sentence or is made subject to a measure under Articles 59–61, 63 or 64 for any of the following offences, the court shall prohibit him from carrying on any professional activity or organised non-professional activity that involves regular contact with especially vulnerable adult persons, as well as any professional activity or organised non-professional activity in the health sector that involves direct contact with patients:

a. trafficking in human beings (Art. 182) for the purpose of sexual exploitation, indecent assault (Art. 189), rape (Art. 190), sexual acts with persons incapable of judgement or resistance (Art. 191), sexual acts with persons in institutional care, prisoners and persons on remand (Art. 192), exploitation of a person in a position of need or dependency (Art. 193), indecent conduct (Art. 194), encouraging prostitution (Art. 195) or sexual harassment (Art. 198), where the offence is committed against or in front of:

1. an especially vulnerable adult victim, or
2. an adult victim who is not especially vulnerable, but who was incapable of resistance or of judgement or who was unable to defend him- or herself as a result of physical or psychological dependence;

b. pornography (Art. 197 para. 2 first sentence and para. 4 or 5), where the items or performances had the following content:
1. sexual acts with especially vulnerable adult victims, or
2. sexual acts with adult victims who are not especially vulnerable, but who were incapable of resistance or of judgement or who were unable to defend themselves as a result of physical or psychological dependence.\(^{85}\)

\(^{4}\text{bis}\) By way of exception, the court may refrain from imposing a prohibition order under paragraph 3 or 4 in particularly minor cases if a prohibition order of this type does not appear necessary to prevent the offender from committing further offences of the same type. The court may not refrain from imposing a prohibition order if the offender:

a. has been convicted of trafficking in human beings (Art. 182), indecent assault (Art. 189), rape (Art. 190), sexual acts with persons incapable of judgement or resistance (Art. 191) or encouraging prostitution (Art. 195); or

b. is a paedophile in accordance with the internationally recognised classification criteria.\(^{86}\)

\(^{5}\) If the offender receives a sentence or is made subject to a measure for two or more offences in the same proceedings, the court shall specify what portion of the sentence or which measure applies to an offence that entails an activity prohibition order. This portion of the sentence, the measure and the offence are decisive in determining whether an activity prohibition order under paragraph 1, 2, 2\(^{\text{bis}}\), 3 or 4 is imposed. The sentence portions for two or more relevant offences are added together. More than one activity prohibition order may be imposed.\(^{87}\)

\(^{6}\) The court may order probation assistance for the duration of the prohibition orders.\(^{88}\)

\(^{88}\) Amended by No I I of the FA of 16 March 2018 (Implementation of Art. 123c Cst.), in force since 1 Jan. 2019 (AS 2018 3803; BBl 2016 6115).
Art. 676

1 Professional activities within the meaning of Article 67 are activities in exercise of a principal or secondary profession or trade or of a commercial enterprise. Organised non-professional activities are activities that are not or not primarily carried on for pecuniary gain and which are carried on in the context of an association or other organisation.

2 The prohibition from carrying on an activity under Article 67 includes activities that the offender carries on on a self-employed basis, as a governing officer of a legal entity or commercial enterprise, or as the agent or representative of another person or which he arranges to be carried on by a person dependent on his instructions.

3 If there is a risk that the offender will also misuse his activity in order to commit offences if he is subject to the orders and control of a superior or supervisor, he shall be totally prohibited from carrying on the activity.

4 Prohibition orders under Article 67 paragraphs 3 and 4 always apply to the entire activity.

5 The following are deemed to be activities with regular contact with minors or with other especially vulnerable persons:

   a. activities that directly and specifically involve minors or other especially vulnerable persons, and in particular:
      1. teaching or training,
      2. parenting or counselling,
      3. care or supervision,
      4. nursing,
      5. physical examination or treatment,
      6. psychological examination or treatment,
      7. preparing and serving meals,
      8. transport,
      9. the direct sale or loan of objects intended specifically for minors or other particularly vulnerable persons, and acting as a direct intermediary in such sales or loans, where this is the main activity of the person concerned;

   b. other activities that are primarily or repeatedly carried on in institutions that offer the services listed under letter a, with the exception of activities where it is ensured at the location or time concerned that no contact with minors or other especially vulnerable persons can take place.\(^{91}\)

6 Especially vulnerable persons are persons who because of their age, an illness or long-term physical, mental or psychological impairment are dependent on help from others in their daily activities or way of living.\(^{92}\)

Art. 67b\(^{93}\)

1 If a person has committed a felony or misdemeanor against one or more specific persons or against persons in a specific group, and if there is a risk that he will commit further felonies or misdemeanours in the event of having contact with such persons, the court may impose a contact prohibition and exclusion order of up to five years.

2 By means of a contact prohibition and exclusion order the court may prohibit the offender from:

a. contacting one or more specific persons or persons in a specific group directly or via third parties, in particular by telephone, in writing or online, or employing, accommodating, educating, caring for such persons or associating with such persons in any other way;

b. approaching a specific person or coming within a specific distance of that person’s home;

c. being present in specific locations, in particular specific streets, areas or districts.

3 The competent authority may use technical devices that are securely attached to the offender in order to enforce the prohibition order. These devices may in particular serve to determine the offender’s location.

4 The court may order probation assistance for the duration of the prohibition order.

5 On application from the executive authority, it may extend limited prohibition orders by a maximum of five years in each case if this is necessary to prevent the offender from committing further felonies and misdemeanours against minors or other especially vulnerable persons.

\(^{92}\) Inserted by No I 1 of the FA of 16 March 2018 (Implementation of Art. 123c Cst.), in force since 1 Jan. 2019 (AS 2018 3803; BBl 2016 6115).

\(^{93}\) Inserted by No I 1 of the FA of 13 Dec. 2013 on Activity Prohibition Orders and Contact Prohibition and Exclusion Orders, in force since 1 Jan. 2015 (AS 2014 2055; BBl 2012 8819).
Art. 67c

1 A prohibition order comes into effect on the day on which the judgment takes full legal effect.

2 The duration of a custodial sentence or of a custodial measure (Art. 59–61 and 64) is not taken into account in determining the term of the prohibition order.

3 If the offender fails to complete the probationary period successfully and if the suspended custodial sentence is executed or a recall to custody is ordered in respect of a sentence or measure, the term of the prohibition order is calculated from the day on which the offender is released on parole or granted final release or on which the sanction is revoked or remitted.

4 If the offender completes the probationary period successfully, the competent authority shall decide on any modification of the conditions or term of the prohibition order under Article 67 paragraph 1 or Article 67b, or on whether the prohibition order should be revoked.

5 The offender may apply to the competent authority for a modification of the conditions or term of the prohibition order, or to have the prohibition order revoked:

   a. in the case of a prohibition order under Article 67 paragraph 1 or under Article 67b: after the order has been in force for two years;

   b. in the case of a limited prohibition order under Article 67 paragraph 2: after half of the term of the prohibition order, provided the order has been in force for at least three years;

   d.96 in the case of a lifelong prohibition order under Article 67 paragraph 2bis: after the order has been in force for ten years.

6 If it is considered unlikely that the offender will commit any further felonies or misdemeanours by misusing an activity or by having contact with specific persons of a specific group to and the offender has provided reasonable compensation for the loss, damage or injury caused, the competent authority shall revoke the prohibition order in cases falling under paragraph 4 or 5.

95 Repealed by No I 1 of the FA of 16 March 2018 (Implementation of Art. 123c Cst.), with effect from 1 Jan. 2019 (AS 2018 3803; BBl 2016 6115).

Prohibition orders under Article 67 paragraphs 3 or 4 may not be revoked.\(^97\)

If the offender breaches an activity prohibition order or a contact prohibition and exclusion order or if he fails to comply with the associated probation assistance, or if such assistance cannot be provided or is no longer required, the competent authority shall submit a report to the court or the executive authority. The court or the executive authority may revoke or make a new order for probation assistance.

The executive authority may order probation assistance for the entire duration of the prohibition from carrying on an activity or the contact and exclusion order.\(^98\)

If the offender fails to comply with the probation assistance during a probationary period, Article 95 paragraphs 4 and 5 apply.

If the offender breaches an activity prohibition order or a contact prohibition and exclusion order during a probationary period, Article 294 and the provisions on revoking a suspended sentence or the suspended part of a sentence and on a recall to custody in respect of a sentence or measure apply.

Art. 67d\(^99\)

1. If it becomes apparent during the term of an activity prohibition order or a contact prohibition and exclusion order that in the offender’s case an extension of the prohibition order or an additional such prohibition order is required, the court may on application from the executive authority extend the prohibition order or impose an additional prohibition order.

2. If it becomes apparent during a custodial sentence or a custodial measure that in the offender’s case a prohibition order under Article 67 paragraph 1 or 2 or under Article 67b is required, the court may impose this prohibition order on application from the executive authority.

Art. 67e\(^100\)

If the offender has used a motor vehicle in order to commit a felony or misdemeanor and where there is a risk of re-offending, the court, in addition to imposing a sentence or measure under Articles 59–64, may

\(^{97}\) Inserted by No I 1 of the FA of 16 March 2018 (Implementation of Art. 123c Cst.), in force since 1 Jan. 2019 (AS 2018 3803; BBl 2016 6115).

\(^{100}\) Originally: Art. 67b. order that the offender forfeit his provisional or full driving licence for a period of between one month and five years.

Art. 67

1 If publication of a criminal judgment is required in the public interest, or in the interests of the person harmed or of the complainant, the court shall order publication at the expense of the offender.

2 If publication of an acquittal or of a ruling of the prosecution service abandoning proceedings is required in the public interest, or in the interests of the acquitted person or former suspect, the court shall order publication at State expense or at the expense of the complainant.

3 Publication is made in the interests of the person harmed, complainant, acquitted person or former suspect only if such persons so request.

4 The court decides on the form and extent of publication.

Art. 68

1 The court shall, irrespective of the criminal liability of any person, order the forfeiture of objects that have been used or were intended to be used for the commission of an offence or that have been produced as a result of the commission of an offence in the event that such objects constitute a future danger to public safety, morals or public order.

2 The court may order that the objects forfeited be rendered unusable or be destroyed.

Art. 69

1 The court shall order the forfeiture of assets that have been acquired through the commission of an offence or that are intended to be used in the commission of an offence or as payment therefor, unless the assets are passed on to the person harmed for the purpose of restoring the prior lawful position.

2 Forfeiture is not permitted if a third party has acquired the assets in ignorance of the grounds for forfeiture, provided he has paid a consideration of equal value therefor or forfeiture would cause him to endure disproportionate hardship.

3 The right to order forfeiture is limited to seven years; if, however, the prosecution of the offence is subject to a longer limitation period, this period also applies to the right to order forfeiture.

101 No longer required as a result of No IV 1 of the FA of 19 June 2015 (Amendment to the Law on Criminal Sanctions), with effect from 1 Jan. 2018 (AS 2016 1249; BBl 2012 4721).
4 Official notice must be given of forfeiture. The rights of persons harmed or third parties expire five years after the date on which official notice is given.

5 If the amount of the assets to be forfeited cannot be ascertained, or may be ascertained only by incurring a disproportionate level of trouble and expense, the court may make an estimate.

Art. 71

1 If the assets subject to forfeiture are no longer available, the court may uphold a claim for compensation by the State in respect of a sum of equivalent value, which claim may be enforced against a third party only if he is not excluded by Article 70 paragraph 2.

2 The court may dismiss an equivalent claim in its entirety or in part if the claim is likely to be unrecoverable or if the claim would seriously hinder the rehabilitation of the person concerned.

3 The investigating authority may seize assets of the person concerned with a view to the enforcement of an equivalent claim. Such seizure does not accord the State preferential rights in the enforcement of the equivalent claim.

Art. 72

The court shall order the forfeiture of all assets that are subject to the power of disposal of a criminal or terrorist organisation. In the case of the assets of a person who participates in or supports such an organisation (Art. 260ter), it is presumed that the assets are subject to the power of disposal of the organisation until the contrary is proven.

Art. 73

1 If as a result of a felony or misdemeanour a person has suffered harm and is not entitled to benefits under an insurance policy, and if it is anticipated that the offender will not pay damages or satisfaction, the court shall award the person harmed, at his request, a sum of money up to the amount of damages or satisfaction set by a court or agreed in a settlement with the person harmed and obtained from:

   a. the monetary penalty or fine paid by the offender;
   b. objects and assets that have been forfeited, or the proceeds of their sale after deduction of expenses;
   c. compensatory claims;

Title Four: Execution of Custodial Sentences and Custodial Measures

Art. 74
The human dignity of the prison inmates or of the inmates of an institution for the execution of measures must be respected. Their rights may only be limited to the extent that that is required for the deprivation of their liberty and their co-existence in the penal institution.

Art. 75
1 The execution of sentences must encourage an improvement in the social behaviour of the prison inmates, and in particular their ability to live their lives without offending again. The conditions under which sentences are executed must correspond as far as possible with those of normal life, guarantee the supervision of the prison inmates, counteract the harmful consequences of the deprivation of liberty and take appropriate account of the need to protect the general public, the institution staff and other inmates.

3 The institution rules shall provide that a sentence management plan be drawn up in consultation with the prison inmate. This plan in particular contains details of the supervision offered, the opportunities to work and receive basic or advanced training, making reparation, relations with the outside world and preparations for release.

4 The prison inmate must actively cooperate in resocialisation efforts and the preparations for release.

5 Account is taken of the gender-specific concerns and needs of the prison inmates.

6 If the prison inmate is released on parole or granted final release and it subsequently comes to light that on his release he was subject to another executable judgment imposing a custodial sentence, execution of that custodial sentence is waived if:

a. it was not executed concurrently with the other custodial sentence for a reason within the control of the executive authorities;

b. the prison inmate was able to assume in good faith that on his release he was not subject to another executable judgment imposing a custodial sentence; and

c. the reintegration of the prison inmates would be prejudiced.

Art. 75a

1 The Commission under Article 62d paragraph 2 shall with a view to a transfer to an open penal institution and the authorisation of a relaxation in the execution of the sentence assess the danger to the community of the offender if:

   a. he has committed a felony in terms of Article 64 paragraph 1; and

   b. the executive authority cannot satisfactorily answer the question of whether he is a danger to other prison inmates.

2 Relaxation of the execution of the sentence involves easing the regime for the deprivation of liberty, in particular by means of a transfer to an open institution, the granting of release on temporary licence, the authorisation of day release employment or of external accommodation and the granting of parole.

3 Danger to the community is assumed if there is a risk that the prison inmate will abscond and commit a further offence that severely prejudices the physical, psychological or sexual integrity of another person.

1 Custodial sentences are executed in a secure or open penal institution.

2 The prison inmate shall be admitted to a secure penal institution or to the secure section of an open penal institution if there is a risk that he will abscond or it is expected that he will commit further offences.

Art. 77

The prison inmate normally spends his working, rest and leisure time in the institution.

Art. 77a

1 The custodial sentence is executed in the form of day release employment if the prison inmate has served part of the custodial sentence, normally a minimum one half, and it is not expected that he will abscond or commit further offences.

2 In day release employment, the prison inmate works outside the institution and spends his rest and leisure time in the institution. The change to day release employment normally takes place following an appropriate period spent in an open institution or the open section of a secure institution. Work outside the institution may also include housework and caring for children.

3 If the prison inmate proves himself to be of good behaviour in day release employment, the further execution of the sentence takes the form of external accommodation and day release employment. Here the prison inmate lives and works outside the institution, but remains under the supervision of the executive authority.

1 At the offender’s request, a custodial sentence of no more than 12 months or the remainder of a sentence after taking account of time spent on remand of no more than six months may be served in the form of semi-detention provided:

   a. it is not anticipated that the offender will abscond or commit further offences; and

   b. the offender does regulated work or training or is similarly occupied for at least 20 hours a week.

2 The prison inmate works, is trained or similarly occupied outside the institution and spends his rest and leisure time in the institution.

3 Semi-detention may be served in a special section of a remand centre provided the offender is guaranteed the required supervision.

4 If the offender no longer meets the authorisation requirements or if he fails to comply with the conditions of semi-detention imposed by the executive authority despite being warned to do so, the custodial sentence shall be served in the normal manner.

Art. 78

Solitary confinement in the form of uninterrupted separation from other prison inmates may only be ordered:

   a. for a maximum of one week at the start of the sentence in order to initiate the execution of the sentence;

   b. for the protection of the prison inmate or of third parties;

   c. as a disciplinary sanction;

d. to prevent other prison inmates from being influenced by ideas that may encourage them to carry out terrorist activities, provided there is specific evidence of such an influence.

Art. 79

1 If it is not anticipated that the offender will abscond or commit further offences, the following sentences may be served in the form of community service:

a. a custodial sentence of no more than six months;

b. the remainder of a sentence of no more than six months after taking account of time spent on remand; or

c. a monetary penalty or a fine.

2 Community service is not permitted as a means of serving an alternative custodial sentence.

3 Community service is work that benefits social institutions, public works or persons in need. The work is unpaid.

4 Four hours of community service correspond to one day of a custodial sentence, one daily penalty unit of a monetary penalty or one day of an alternative custodial sentence in the case of contraventions.

5 The executive authority shall allow the offender a specific period not exceeding two years within which to complete the community service. In the case of community service carried out in lieu of a fine, this period may not exceed one year.

6 If the offender fails to comply with the conditions of community service imposed by the executive authority despite being warned to do so, the custodial sentence shall be served in the normal manner or in the form of semi-detention, or the monetary penalty or fine shall be enforced.

1 At the request of the offender, the executive authority may order the use of electronic devices and their secure attachment to the offender’s body (electronic monitoring):

---

a. in execution of a custodial sentence or an alternative custodial sentence of from 20 days to 12 months; or
b. in lieu of day release employment or day release employment and external accommodation for a term of from 3 to 12 months.

2 The executive authority may order electronic monitoring only if:
   a. it is not anticipated that the offender will abscond or commit further offences;
   b. the offender lives in permanent accommodation;
   c. the offender is doing regulated work or training or is similarly occupied for at least 20 hours a week or can be assigned to do the same;
   d. the adults living with the offender in the same accommodation consent; and
   e. the offender agrees to the implementation plan drawn up for him.

3 If the requirements of paragraph 2 letter a, b or c are no longer met or if the offender fails to fulfil the obligations set out in the implementation plan, the executive authority may discontinue the electronic monitoring and order the sentence to be served in the normal manner or in the form of semi-detention, or restrict the free time available to the offender.

Art. 80
1 A departure from the rules governing the execution of sentences in favour of the prison inmates may be permitted:
   a. if the state of health of the prison inmates so requires;
   b. in the event of pregnancy, childbirth and for the time immediately after childbirth;
   c. to enable the mother and infant to be accommodated together, provided this is also in the interests of the child.

2 If the sentence is not served in a penal institution, but in another appropriate institution, the prison inmate is subject to the regulations of that institution unless the executive authority orders otherwise.

Art. 81
1 The prison inmate is obliged to work. Wherever possible, the work should be appropriate to his skills, education and training and his interests.

2 If he consents to do so, the prison inmate may work for a private employer.
Art. 82
Where he shows the required aptitude and the possibility exists, the prison inmate is given the opportunity to undergo basic and advanced training appropriate to his skills.

Art. 83
1 The prison inmate receives a wage for his work based on his performance and according to the circumstances.
2 The prison inmate may freely dispose of only part of his wage while serving his sentence. The remaining part is withheld until the inmate has been released. The wage may neither be pledged, seized nor included in an insolvent estate. Any assignment or pledge of the wage is null and void.
3 If the prison inmate participates in basic or advanced training instead of work in accordance with his sentence management plan, he receives appropriate remuneration.

1 The prison inmate has the right to receive visitors and to cultivate contacts with persons outside the institution. Contact with close relatives and friends shall be facilitated.
2 Contact may be monitored and for the preservation of order and security in the penal institution it may be restricted or prohibited. The monitoring of visits is not permitted without the knowledge of those concerned. The foregoing does not apply to procedural measures in order to secure evidence for the purposes of a prosecution.
3 Clerics, doctors, attorneys, notaries and guardians as well as persons with comparable duties may be permitted to communicate freely with the prison inmates subject to the general institution rules.
4 Contact with defence attorneys must be permitted. Visits from the defence attorney may be supervised but conversations may not be listened in on. Inspecting the content of correspondence and attorneys' documents is not permitted. Contact with attorneys may be prohibited by the competent authority in the event of abuse.
5 Communications with the supervisory authorities may not be monitored.
6 The prison inmate shall be granted release on temporary licence to an appropriate extent in order to cultivate relations with the outside world, prepare for his release or where there are special circumstances, provided his conduct in custody does not preclude this and there is no risk that he will abscond or commit further offences.
6bis Offenders subject to indefinite incarceration are not granted release on temporary licence or other relaxations of the execution of the sentence during the sentence served prior to incarceration.\(^{110}\)

7 Article 36 of the Vienna Convention of 24 April 1963\(^ {111}\) on Consular Relations and other regulations under international law on visits and correspondence that are binding on Switzerland are reserved.

Art. 85

1 The personal effects and the accommodation of the prison inmate may be searched in the interests of maintaining order and security in the penal institution.

2 A prison inmate who is suspected of concealing unpermitted articles about his person or in his body, may be subjected to a body search. The search must be conducted by a person of the same gender. If the removal of clothing is required, this must be carried out in the absence of other prison inmates. Searches of body cavities must be carried out by a doctor or other medically qualified staff.

Art. 86

1 If the prison inmate has served two thirds of his sentence, provided this amounts to at least three months, he shall be released on parole by the competent authority if this is justified by his conduct while in custody and it is not expected that he will commit further felonies or misdemeanours.

2 The competent authority shall assess ex officio whether the inmate may be released on parole. It shall obtain a report from the institution board. The prison inmate shall be granted a hearing.

3 If parole is refused, the competent authority must reassess the question of whether parole may be granted at least once each year.

4 If the prison inmate has served half of his sentence, provided this amounts to at least three months, he may be released on parole by way of exception, if exceptional personal circumstances justify this.

5 In the case of persons serving a life sentence, parole under paragraph 1 is possible at the earliest after 15 years, and under paragraph 4 at the earliest after ten years.

Art. 87

1 A person released on parole is made subject to a probationary period of a duration that corresponds to the remainder of his sentence. The period however amounts to at least one year and no more than five years.
2 The executive authority shall normally order probation assistance for the duration of the probationary period. It may impose conduct orders on the person released on parole.

3 If parole is granted to an inmate serving a custodial sentence for an offence mentioned in Article 64 paragraph 1, and if on expiry of the probationary period a continuation of the probation assistance or the conduct orders appear to be required in order to reduce the risk of further offences of this type being committed, the court may at the request of the executive authority extend the probation assistance or the conduct orders in each case by one to five years or impose a new conduct order for this period. A recall to custody in accordance with Article 95 paragraph 5 is not possible in such cases.

Art. 88

If the person released on parole is of good behaviour throughout the probationary period, he is granted final release.

Art. 89

1 If a person released on parole commits a felony or misdemeanour during the probationary period, the court judging the new offence shall order his recall to custody.

2 If, despite the commission of a felony or misdemeanour during the probationary period, it is not expected that the offender will commit further offences, the court shall dispense with a recall to custody. It may admonish the offender and extend the probationary period by no more than half of the period originally fixed by the competent authority. If the extension is ordered after the expiry of the original probationary period, it begins on the day on which it is ordered. The provisions on probation assistance and conduct orders apply (Art. 93–95).

3 If a person released on parole fails to comply with the conditions of probation assistance or disregards the conduct orders, Article 95 paragraphs 3–5 applies.

4 A recall to custody may not be ordered if three years have elapsed since the expiry of the probationary period.

5 Any period of time spent on remand that the offender has served during the recall to custody proceedings is taken into account in the remainder of his sentence.

6 If the requirements for an unsuspended custodial sentence are fulfilled due to the new offence and if this coincides with the remainder of the sentence that must be executed by the recall to custody, the court shall impose a cumulative sentence in application of Article 49 a. The rules on parole again apply to this sentence. If only the remainder of the sentence is executed, Article 86 paragraphs 1–4 applies.
7 If the remainder of a sentence that must be executed in accordance with a decision on recall to custody coincides with the execution of a measure under Articles 59–61, Article 57 paragraphs 2 and 3 applies.

Art. 90

1 A person subject to the execution of a measure under Articles 59–61, may only be accommodated without interruption separately from the other inmates of an institution for the execution of measures if this is essential:

   a. as a temporary therapeutic measure;
   b. for the protection of other inmates of the institution or of third parties;
   c. as a disciplinary sanction;
   d.\textsuperscript{112} to prevent other prison inmates from being influenced by ideas that may encourage them to carry out terrorist activities, provided there is specific evidence of such an influence.

2 At the start of the execution of the measure, a sentence management plan is drawn up in consultation with the inmate or his legal representative. This includes in particular details of the treatment of the inmate's mental disorder, dependence or developmental disorder and on measures to prevent the endangerment of others.

2\textsuperscript{bis} Measures under Articles 59–61 and 64 may be executed in the form of external accommodation and day release employment if there is a justified opinion that this will significantly contribute to the aim of the measure being achieved, and if there is no risk that the inmate will abscond or will commit further offences. Article 77\textsuperscript{a} paragraphs 2 and 3 applies by analogy.\textsuperscript{113}

3 If the inmate is able to work, he is required to work to the extent that his in-patient treatment or care requires or permits. Articles 81–83 apply in an analogous manner.

4 Article 84 applies by analogy to the relations of the inmates of an institution for the execution of measures with the outside world, unless additional restrictions are required for reasons relating to the in-patient treatment.

4\textsuperscript{bis} Article 75\textsuperscript{a} applies by analogy to admission to an open institution and to the authorisation of a relaxation in the measures regime.\textsuperscript{114}

During lifelong incarceration, it is not permitted to authorise release on temporary licence or a relaxation of the sentence regime. Article 85 applies by analogy to searches and inspections.

Art. 91

Disciplinary sanctions may be imposed on prison inmates and inmates of an institution for the execution of measures who are guilty of infringing the institution regulations or the sentence management plan.

Disciplinary sanctions are:

a. a reprimand;

b. the temporary withdrawal or restriction of the right to use money, participate in recreational activities or have external contacts;

c. a fine; and

d. solitary confinement as an additional restriction of liberty.

The cantons shall enact disciplinary regulations applicable to the execution of sentences and measures. The regulations detail the disciplinary offences, the sanctions and how they are fixed, and regulate the procedure.

Art. 92

The execution of sentences and measures may be interrupted for good cause.

Art. 92a

Victims and relatives of victims as defined in Article 1 paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Victim Support Act of 23 March 2007 (VSA) and third parties who have a legitimate interest may make a written request to the executive authority for the following information:

a. the time of execution of the sentence or measure imposed on the offender, institution responsible for execution, the form of execution if it differs from normal, interruptions and relaxations in the sentence or measure, (Art. 75a para. 2), parole and final release, and the reactivation of the execution of a sentence or measure;

b. immediate notification of the escape of an offender and of his or her recapture.

2 The executive authority decides on the request after consulting the offender.

3 It may refuse to provide the information or revoke a previous decision to provide information only if the offender’s legitimate interests justify this.

4 If the executive authority approves a request, it shall advise the person entitled to information of the confidentiality of the information disclosed. Persons entitled to victim support under the VSA are not required to maintain confidentiality in their dealings with a counsellor at a counselling service under Article 9 VSA.

Title Five: Probation Assistance, Conduct Orders and Voluntary Social Supervision

Art. 93

1 Probation assistance is intended to protect the probationers from reoffending and enable their social integration. The competent authority for probation assistance provides and arranges for the required social and specialist services.

2 Persons working in the field of probation assistance must treat matters that come to their knowledge in the course of their work as confidential. They may disclose information on the personal circumstances of a probationer to third parties only if the probationer or the person in charge of probation assistance has consented in writing.

3 The authorities for the administration of criminal justice may obtain a report on the probationer from the competent authority for probation assistance.

Art. 94

The conduct orders that the court or the executive authority may impose on the offender for duration of the probationary period relate in particular to the practice of a profession, place of residence, driving motor vehicles, reparation and medical and psychological therapy.

Art. 95

1 Prior to making their decision on probation assistance and conduct orders, the court and the executive authority may obtain a report from the authority responsible for supervising the probation assistance and the conduct orders or for enforcing activity prohibition orders or contact prohibition and exclusion orders. The person concerned may state his opinion on the report. Differences of opinion must be recorded in the report.

2 The ordering of probation assistance and conduct orders must be noted and justified in the judgment or the decision.

3 If the offender fails to comply with the conditions of probation assistance or disregards the conduct orders or if the probation assistance or conduct orders cannot be implemented or are no longer required, the competent authority shall submit a report to the court or the authorities responsible for the execution of sentences and measures.

4 The court or the executive authority may in the cases mentioned in paragraph 3:
   a. extend the probationary period by one half;
   b. revoke or reorganise the probation assistance;
   c. modify or revoke the conduct orders or issue new conduct orders.

5 The court may in the cases in paragraph 3 revoke the suspended sentence or order the recall to custody for the execution of the sentence or measure if it is seriously expected that the offender will commit further offences.

Art. 96

The cantons shall guarantee the provision of social assistance for the duration of the criminal proceedings and of the execution of the sentence which may be claimed voluntarily.

Title Six: Statute of Limitations

Art. 97

1 The right to prosecute is subject to a time limit of:
   a. 30 years if the offence carries a custodial sentence of life;
   b. 15 years if the offence carries a custodial sentence of more than three years;
   c. 10 years if the offence carries a custodial sentence of three years;

d. seven years if the offence carries a different penalty.\textsuperscript{121}

\textsuperscript{2} In the case of sexual acts with children (Art. 187) and dependent persons (Art. 188) and in the case of offences under Articles 111, 113, 122, 124, 182, 189–191, 195 and 197 paragraph 3 involving a child under 16, the limitation period in each case runs at least until the victim has attained the age of 25.\textsuperscript{122}

\textsuperscript{3} If a judgment is issued by a court of first instance before expiry of the limitation period, the time limit no longer applies.

\textsuperscript{4} The limitation of the right to prosecute in the case of sexual acts with children (Art. 187) and dependent minors (Art. 188) and offences under Articles 111–113, 122, 182, 189–191 and 195 involving a child under 16 is governed by paragraphs 1–3 if the offence was committed before the amendment of 5 October 2001\textsuperscript{123} came into force and the limitation of the right to prosecute had not yet taken effect.\textsuperscript{124}

\textbf{Art. 98}

\textbf{Commencement}

The limitation period begins:

a. on the day on which the offender committed the offence;

b. on the day on which the final act was carried out if the offence consists of a series of acts carried out at different times;

c. on the day on which the criminal conduct ceases if the criminal conduct continues over a period of time.

\textbf{Art. 99}

\textbf{Commencement}

The right to execute a sentence is subject to a limitation period of:

a. 30 years if a custodial sentence of life has been imposed;

b. 25 years if a custodial sentence of ten or more years has been imposed;

c. 20 years if a custodial sentence at least five and less than ten years has been imposed;

d. 15 years, if a custodial sentence of more than one and less than five years has been imposed;

e. five years if any other sentence has been imposed.

\textsuperscript{121} Amended by No I 1 of the FA of 21 June 2013 (Extension of Prosecution Time Limits), in force since 1 Jan. 2014 (AS\textsuperscript{2002} 2993).

\textsuperscript{122} Amended by Annex No 1 of the FedD of 27 Sept. 2013 (Lanzarote Convention), in force since 1 July 2014 (AS\textsuperscript{2014} 1159; BBl\textsuperscript{2012} 7571).

\textsuperscript{123} AS\textsuperscript{2002} 2993

2 The limitation period for a custodial sentence is extended:
   a. by the time that the offender spends serving without interruption that or any other custodial sentence or measure that is executed immediately beforehand;
   b. by the length of the probationary period in the case of release on parole.

Art. 100
The limitation period begins on the day on which the judgment becomes legally enforceable, and in the case of suspended sentences or the execution of a measure, on the day on which the execution of the penalty is ordered.

Art. 101
1 There is no statute of limitations for the offences of:
   a. genocide (Art. 264);
   b. crimes against humanity (Art. 264a para. 1 and 2);
   c. war crimes (Art. 264c para. 1–3, 264d para. 1 and 2, 264e para. 1 and 2, 264f, 264g para. 1 and 2 and 264h);
   d. felonies that have caused or threatened to cause danger to life and limb to a large number of persons as a method of extortion or duress, in particular through the use of means of mass destruction, the causing of catastrophes, or as part of a hostage taking offence.
   e. sexual acts with children (Art. 187 No 1), indecent assault (Art. 189), rape (Art. 190), sexual acts with persons incapable of judgement or resistance (Art. 191), sexual acts with persons in institutional care, prisoners and persons on remand (Art. 192 para. 1) and exploitation of a person in a position of need or dependency (Art. 193 para. 1) if committed against children under the age of 12.126

2 If the right to prosecute the offence would have become time barred had Articles 97 and 98 applied, the court may in its discretion impose a more lenient penalty.

125 Inserted by No I 1 of the FA of 15 June 2012 (Non-applicability of Limitation to Sexual or Pornography Offences against Prepubescent Children), in force since 1 Jan. 2013 (AS 2012 5951; BBl 2011 5977).
Paragraphs 1 letters a, c and d and paragraph 2 apply if the right to prosecute or execute the sentence had not become time barred by 1 January 1983 in accordance with the law applicable until that point in time. Paragraph 1 letter b applies if the right to prosecute or execute the penalty has not become time barred under the previous law when the Amendment of 18 June 2010 to this Code comes into force. Paragraph 1 letter e applies if the prosecution or the sentence has not become time barred by 30 November 2008 in accordance with the law applicable until that point in time.\(^{127}\) \(^{128}\)

Title Seven: Corporate Criminal Liability

Art. 102

1 If a felony or misdemeanor is committed in an undertaking in the exercise of commercial activities in accordance with the objects of the undertaking and if it is not possible to attribute this act to any specific natural person due to the inadequate organisation of the undertaking, then the felony or misdemeanor is attributed to the undertaking. In such cases, the undertaking shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 5 million francs.

2 If the offence committed falls under Articles 260\(^{1}\)ter, 260\(^{2}\)quinquies, 305\(^{3}\)bis, 322\(^{4}\)ter, 322\(^{5}\)quinquies, 322\(^{6}\)septies, 322\(^{7}\)octies paragraph 1 or 322\(^{8}\)octies, the undertaking is penalised irrespective of the criminal liability of any natural persons, provided the undertaking has failed to take all the reasonable organisational measures that are required in order to prevent such an offence.\(^{129}\)

3 The court assesses the fine in particular in accordance with the seriousness of the offence, the seriousness of the organisational inadequacies and of the loss or damage caused, and based on the economic ability of the undertaking to pay the fine.

4 Undertakings within the meaning of this title are:

   a. any legal entity under private law;
   b. any legal entity under public law with exception of local authorities;
   c. companies;
   d. sole proprietorships.\(^{130}\)

Part Two: Contraventions

Art. 103

Contraventions are acts that are punishable by a fine.

Art. 104

The provisions of the First Part also apply to contraventions, subject to the following changes.

Art. 105

¹ The provisions on suspended and partially suspended sentences (Art. 42 and 43), on expulsion (Art. 66a–66d) and on corporate criminal liability (Art. 102) do not apply to contraventions.¹³²

² Attempt and complicity are offences only in the cases expressly mentioned in this Code.

³ Custodial measures (Art. 59–61 and 64), activity prohibition orders (Art. 67), contact prohibition and exclusion orders (Art. 67b) and the publication of the judgment (Art. 68) are permitted only in the cases expressly mentioned in this Code.¹³³

Art. 106

¹ Unless the law provides otherwise, the maximum amount of a fine is 10,000 francs.

² In its judgment, the court shall impose an alternative custodial sentence of at least one day and a maximum of three months for the event that the fine is wilfully not paid.

³ The court determines the fine and the alternative custodial sentence based on the offender's circumstances so that the offender receives the sentence that is commensurate with his culpable conduct.

⁴ On retrospective payment of the fine, the offender is released from the alternative custodial sentence.

5 Articles 35 and 36 paragraphs 2–5 apply by analogy to execution and conversion.

Title Three:
Offences against Personal Honour and in Breach of Secrecy or Privacy

Art. 173
1. Any person who in addressing a third party, makes an accusation against or casts suspicion on another of dishonourable conduct or of other conduct that shall be liable to damage another's reputation, any person who disseminates such accusations or suspicions, shall be liable on complaint to a monetary penalty.

2. If the accused proves that the statement made or disseminated by him corresponds to the truth or that he had substantial grounds to hold an honest belief that it was true, he is not liable to a penalty.

3. The accused is not permitted to lead evidence in support of and is criminally liable for statements that are made or disseminated with the primary intention of accusing someone of disreputable conduct without there being any public interest or any other justified cause, and particularly where such statements refer to a person’s private or family life.

4. If the offender recants his statement, the court may impose a more lenient penalty or no penalty at all.

5. If the accused is unable to prove the truth of his statement, or if it is shown to be untrue, or if the accused recants his statement, the court must state this in its judgment or in another document.

Art. 174
1. A person in addressing a third party, and knowing his allegations to be untrue, makes an accusation against or casts suspicion on another of dishonourable conduct, or of other conduct that shall be liable to damage another's reputation, any person who disseminates such accusations or suspicions, knowing them to be untrue, shall be liable on complaint to a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or to a monetary penalty.

2. If the offender has acted systematically to undermine the good reputation of another, he shall be liable to a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or to a monetary penalty of not less than 30 daily penalty units.\(^{199}\)

3. If the offender recants his statement before the court on the grounds that it is untrue, the court may impose a more lenient penalty. The court must provide the person harmed with a document confirming the recantation.

Art. 175

1 If the defamation, whether wilful or not, is directed at a person who is deceased or who has been declared missing presumed dead, the relatives of the deceased person or the person missing presumed dead are entitled to apply for prosecution.

2 No offence is committed if, at the time of the statement being made, the deceased person has been dead or the missing person missing for more than 30 years.

Art. 176

Verbal defamation, whether wilful or not, is regarded as the equivalent of defamatory statements made in writing, in pictures, by gestures or in any other manner.

Art. 177

1 Any person who attacks the honour of another verbally, in writing, in pictures, through gestures or through acts of aggression shall be liable on complaint to a monetary penalty not exceeding 90 daily penalty units.\(^{200}\)

2 If the insulted party has directly provoked the insult by improper behaviour, the court may dispense with imposing a penalty on the offender.

3 If there is an immediate response to the insult by way of a retaliatory insult or act of aggression, the court may dispense with imposing a penalty on either or both offenders.

2 In especially serious cases, and in particular where the offence affects a number of persons or the offender acts in a cruel manner, a custodial sentence of life may be imposed.

3 In less serious cases under paragraph 1 letters c–j, a custodial sentence of not less than one year may be imposed.

Title Twelve War Crimes

Art. 264b

Articles 264d–264j apply in connection with international armed conflicts including occupations as well as, unless the nature the offences requires otherwise, in connection with non-international armed conflicts.

Art. 264c

The penalty is a custodial sentence of not less than five years for any person who commits a serious violation of the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 in connection with an international armed conflict by carrying out any of the following acts against persons or property protected under the Conventions:

a. intentional homicide;

b. hostage taking;

c. causing severe pain or suffering or serious injury, whether physical or mental, in particular by torture, inhuman treatment or biological experiments;

d. extensive destruction and appropriation of property not justified by military necessity and carried out unlawfully and wantonly;

e. compelling a person to serve in the forces of a hostile power;

f. unlawful deportation or transfer or unlawful confinement;

g. denying the right to a fair and regular trial before the imposition or execution of a severe penalty.

Acts in terms of paragraph 1 committed in connection with a non-international armed conflict are equivalent to serious violations of international humanitarian law if they are directed against a person or property protected by international humanitarian law.

In especially serious cases, and in particular where the offence affects a number of persons or the offender acts in a cruel manner, a custodial sentence of life may be imposed.

In less serious cases under paragraph 1 letters c–g, a custodial sentence of not less than one year may be imposed.

The penalty is a custodial sentence of not less than three years for any person who in connection with an armed conflict directs an attack:

- against the civilian population as such or against individual civilians not taking direct part in hostilities;
- against personnel, installations, material or vehicles involved in a humanitarian assistance or peacekeeping mission in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations of 26 June 1945, as long as they are entitled to the protection of international humanitarian law;
- against civilian objects, undefended settlements or buildings or demilitarised zones that are not military objectives;
- against medical units, material or vehicles using a distinctive emblem under international humanitarian law or whose protected character is recognisable even without a distinctive emblem, hospitals and places where the sick and wounded are collected;
- against cultural property or persons entrusted with its protection or vehicles for its transport, against buildings dedicated to religion, education, art, science or charitable purposes, provided they are protected by international humanitarian law.

In especially serious cases of attacks on persons, a custodial sentence of life may be imposed.

In less serious cases, a custodial sentence of not less than one year may be imposed.
Art. 264e

1 The penalty is a custodial sentence of not less than three years for any person who, in connection with an armed conflict:

a. causes severe pain or suffering or serious injury or danger, whether physical or mental, to a person protected by international humanitarian law by subjecting that person to a medical procedure that is not justified by the state of his or her health and which does comply with generally recognised medical principles;

b. rapes a person of the female gender protected by international humanitarian law or, after she has been forcibly made pregnant, confines her unlawfully with the intent of affecting the ethnic composition of a population, forces a person to tolerate a sexual act of comparable severity or forces a person protected by international humanitarian law into prostitution or to be sterilised;

c. subjects a person protected by international humanitarian law to especially humiliating and degrading treatment.

2 In especially serious cases, and in particular where the offence affects a number of persons or the offender acts in a cruel manner, a custodial sentence of life may be imposed.

3 In less serious cases, a custodial sentence of not less than one year may be imposed.

Art. 264f

1 The penalty is a custodial sentence of not less than three years for any person who enlists a child under the age of fifteen into armed forces or groups or recruiting them for this purpose or using them to participate in armed conflicts.

2 In especially serious cases, and in particular where the offence affects a number of children or the offender acts in a cruel manner, a custodial sentence of life may be imposed.

3 In less serious cases, a custodial sentence of not less than one year may be imposed.

Art. 264g

1 The penalty is a custodial sentence of not less than three years for any person who, in connection with an armed conflict:

a. launches an attack although he knows or must assume that such an attack will cause loss of life or injury to civilians or damage to civilian objects or widespread, long-term and severe damage to the natural environment which would be clearly excessive in relation to the concrete and direct overall military advantage anticipated;
b. uses a person protected by international humanitarian law as a human shield in order to influence military operations;

c. as a method of warfare, pillages or otherwise unlawfully appropriates property or destroys or seizes enemy property in a way not imperatively demanded by the necessities of war, deprives civilians of objects indispensable to their survival or impedes relief supplies;

d. kills or wounds an enemy combatant treacherously or after he or she has laid down his or her arms or no longer has a means of defence;

e. mutilates a dead enemy combatant;

f. as the commander orders that no quarter be given or threatens the enemy that no quarter will be given;

g. makes improper use of a flag of truce, of the flag or of the military insignia and uniform of the enemy or of the United Nations, or the distinctive emblems under international humanitarian law;

h. as a member of an occupying power, transfers parts of its own civilian population into the territory it is occupying or deports all or parts of the population of the occupied territory within or outside that territory.

2 In especially serious cases, and in particular where the offence affects a number of persons or the offender acts in a cruel manner, a custodial sentence of life may be imposed.

3 In less serious cases, a custodial sentence of not less than one year may be imposed.

1 The penalty is a custodial sentence of not less than three years for any person who, in connection with an armed conflict:

a. employs poison or poisoned weapons;

b. employs biological or chemical weapons, including poisonous or asphyxiating gases, substances and liquids;

c. employs bullets which expand or flatten easily or explode in the human body;

d. employs weapons primarily designed to cause injury through splinters that cannot be detected by x-ray equipment;

e. employs laser weapons primarily designed to cause permanent blindness.

2 In especially serious cases, a custodial sentence of life may be imposed.
Art. 264i

The penalty is a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or a monetary penalty for any person who:

a. continues military operations after receiving official notification of an agreement on a ceasefire or a peace agreement, or violates the conditions of the ceasefire in some other way;

b. abuses, insults or without reason obstructs an opposing peace negotiator or any of his party;

c. without justification delays the repatriation of prisoners of war after conclusion of military operations.

Art. 264j

The penalty is a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or a monetary penalty for any person who in connection with an armed conflict violates a provision of international humanitarian law other than those mentioned in Articles 264c–264i, where such a violation is declared to be an offence under customary international law or an international treaty recognised as binding by Switzerland.

Title Twelvequater\textsuperscript{292}

Common Provisions for Title Twelve\textsuperscript{bis} and Title Twelve\textsuperscript{ter}

Art. 264k

1 A superior who is aware that a subordinate is carrying out or will carry out an act under the Title Twelve\textsuperscript{bis} or Title Twelve\textsuperscript{ter} and who fails to take appropriate measures to prevent the act shall be liable to the same penalty as the perpetrator of the act. If the superior fails to prevent the act through negligence, the penalty is a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or a monetary penalty.

2 A superior who is aware that a subordinate has carried out an act under Title Twelve\textsuperscript{bis} or Title Twelve\textsuperscript{ter} and who fails to take appropriate measures to ensure the prosecution of the perpetrator of the act shall be liable to a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or a monetary penalty.

Art. 264l

A subordinate who, on orders from a superior or on orders of equivalent binding effect, carries out an act under Title Twelve\textsuperscript{bis} or Title Twelve\textsuperscript{ter} is guilty of an offence if he was aware at the time that the act is an offence.

Art. 264m

1 A person who carries out an act under Title Twelvebis, Title Twelveter or Article 264k while abroad is guilty of an offence if he is in Switzerland and is not extradited to another State or delivered to an international criminal court whose jurisdiction is recognised by Switzerland.

2 Where the victim of the act carried out abroad is not Swiss and the perpetrator is not Swiss, the prosecution, with the exception of measures to secure evidence, may be abandoned or may be dispensed with provided:

   a. a foreign authority or an international criminal court whose jurisdiction is recognised by Switzerland is prosecuting the offence and the suspected perpetrator is extradited or delivered to the court; or

   b. the suspected perpetrator is no longer in Switzerland and is not expected to return there.

3 Article 7 paragraphs 4 and 5 applies unless the acquittal, or the remission or application of time limits for the execution of the sentence abroad has the aim of protecting the offender from punishment without justification.

Art. 264n

The prosecution offences under Title Twelvebis, Title Twelveter and under Article 264k does not require authorisation in accordance with any of the following provisions:

   a. Article 7 paragraph 2 letter b of the Criminal Procedure Code293;

   b. Article 14 and 15 of the Government Liability Act of 14 March 1958294;

   c. Article 17 of the Parliament Act of 13 December 2002295;

   d. Article 61a of the Government and Administration Organisation Act of 21 March 1997296;

   e. Article 11 of the Federal Supreme Court Act of 17 June 2005297;

Prosecution

Art. 302

1 Felonies and misdemeanours under this Title are only prosecuted on the authority of the Federal Council.

Amended by No I of the FA of 5 Oct. 1950, in force since 5 Jan. 1951 (AS 1951 1 16; BBl 1949 1 1249).
2 The Federal Council shall order a prosecution only if a request to do so is received from the government of the foreign state in the case of Article 296 or from a governing officer of the international organisation in the case of Article 297. In times of active service, the Federal Council may also order a prosecution in the absence of a request.

3 In the case of Articles 296 and 297, the right to prosecute is subject to a limitation period of two years.

Title Seventeen: Felonies and Misdemeanours against the Administration of Justice

Art. 303

1. Any person who makes an accusation to the authorities that a person whom he knows to be innocent has committed a felony or a misdemeanor, with the intention of causing a criminal prosecution to be brought against that person, any person who otherwise carries out malicious acts with the intention of causing a criminal prosecution to be brought against a person whom he knows to be innocent, shall be liable to a custodial sentence or to a monetary penalty.

2. If the false accusation relates to a contravention, the penalty is a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or a monetary penalty.

Art. 304

1. Any person who reports the commission of a criminal offence to the judicial authorities which he knows has not been committed, any person who falsely reports to the judicial authorities that he has himself committed an offence, shall be liable to a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or to a monetary penalty.

2. In particularly minor cases, the court may waive the imposition of a penalty.

Art. 305

1 Any person who assists another to evade prosecution, the execution of a sentence, or the execution of any of the measures provided for in Articles 59–61, 63 and 64 shall be liable to a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or to a monetary penalty.

1bis Any person who assists a person who is being prosecuted or has been convicted outside Switzerland in respect of a felony in accordance with Article 101 to evade prosecution or the execution of a custodial sentence or a measure within the meaning of Articles 59–61, 63 or 64 in that place shall be liable to the same penalties as in paragraph 1.

2 The court may waive the imposition of a penalty where the person committing an offence in terms of this Article is so closely related to the person receiving his assistance that his conduct is excusable.

Art. 305bis

1. Any person who carries out an act that is aimed at frustrating the identification of the origin, the tracing or the forfeiture of assets which he knows or must assume originate from a felony or aggravated tax misdemeanour shall be liable to a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or to a monetary penalty.

1bis. An aggravated tax misdemeanour is any of the offences set out in Article 186 of the Federal Act of 14 December 1990 on Direct Federal Taxation and Article 59 paragraph 1 clause one of the Federal Act of 14 December 1990 on the Harmonisation of Direct Federal Taxation at Cantonal and Communal Levels, if the tax evaded in any tax period exceeds 300,000 francs.

2. In serious cases, the penalty is a custodial sentence not exceeding five years or a monetary penalty. A custodial sentence is combined with a monetary penalty not exceeding 500 daily penalty units.

A serious case is constituted, in particular, where the offender:

a. acts as a member of a criminal or terrorist organisation;

b. acts as a member of a group that has been formed for the purpose of the continued conduct of money laundering activities; or

c. achieves a large turnover or substantial profit through commercial money laundering.

3. The offender is also liable to the foregoing penalties where the main offence was committed abroad, provided such an offence is also liable to prosecution at the place of commission.

Art. 305ter

1 Any person who as part of his profession accepts, holds on deposit, or assists in investing or transferring outside assets and fails to ascertain the identity of the beneficial owner of the assets with the care that is required in the circumstances shall be liable to a custodial sentence not exceeding one year or to a monetary penalty.

Book Three: Introduction and Application of the Code
Title One: Relationship between this Code and other Federal and Cantonal Acts

Art. 333
\footnote{Amended by No III of the FA of 13 Dec. 2002, in force since 1 Jan. 2007 (AS 2006 3459 3535; BBl 1999 1979).} The general provisions of this Code apply to offences provided for in other federal acts unless these federal acts themselves contain detailed provisions on such offences.

In the other federal acts, the terms below are replaced as follows:

  \item Trading in material requisitioned by the armed forces
  \item Unauthorised wearing of the military uniform
  \item Failure to report a find \end{itemize}
a. penal servitude by a custodial sentence of more than one year;

b. imprisonment by a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or by a monetary penalty;

c. imprisonment for less than six months by a monetary penalty, whereby a one-month custodial sentence corresponds to a monetary penalty of 30 daily penalty units up to a maximum of 3000 francs.

3 An offence that carries a maximum penalty of detention or a fine or of a fine only is a contravention. Articles 106 and 107 apply. Article 8 of the Federal Act of 22 March 1974 on Administrative Criminal Law is reserved. An offence is also a contravention if, in terms of another Federal Act that came into force before 1942, it carries a term of imprisonment not exceeding three months.

4 Sentences of lengths differing from those mentioned in paragraph 2 and Article 41 as well as fines of amounts differing from those mentioned in Article 106 are reserved.

5 If another federal act provides for a fine to be imposed for a felony or misdemeanour, Article 34 applies. Rules on determining a penalty that differ from Article 34 do not apply. Article 8 of the Federal Act of 22 March 1974 on Administrative Criminal Law remains reserved. If the fine is limited to a sum under 1 080 000 francs, this limit no longer applies. If the fine is limited to a sum exceeding 1 080 000 francs, this limit continues to apply. In this case, the maximum number of daily penalty units equals the current maximum fine divided by 3000.

6 Until they have been amended, the following applies in other federal acts:

   a. the limitation periods for the prosecution of felonies and misdemeanours are increased by half and the limitation periods for the prosecution of contraventions by twice the ordinary duration;

   b. the limitation periods for the prosecution of contraventions that exceed one year are increased by the ordinary duration;

   c. the rules on the interruption and suspension of the limitation period for prosecution are repealed. Article 11 paragraph 3 of the Federal Act of 22 March 1974 on Administrative Criminal Law remains reserved;

   d. the limitation period for prosecution no longer applies if a judgment is issued by a court of first instance before expiry of the limitation period.
e. the limitation periods for the execution of penalties for felonies and misdemeanours continue to apply, and those for penalties for contraventions are increased by one half.

f. the provisions on the suspension of the limitation period for the execution of a penalty continue to apply, and those on interruption are repealed.

7 The contraventions provided for in other federal acts are offences, even if they have been committed through negligence, unless only intentional commission is an offence in terms of the provision concerned.

Art. 334

If reference is made in federal legislation to provisions being amended or repealed by this Code, the references relate to the provisions of this Code that regulate the matter.

Art. 335

1 The cantons retain the power to legislate on contraventions that are not the subject matter of federal legislation.

2 The cantons have the power to provide for sanctions for offences against cantonal administrative and procedural law.

Art. 349a 437

The competent federal authorities may only disclose personal data if there is a legal basis for doing so under Article 7 of the Schengen Data Protection Act of 28 September 2018 438 (SADP) or if:

a. disclosure of personal data is required to protect the life or physical integrity of the person concerned or of a third party;

b. the person concerned has made their personal data general accessible and has not expressly prohibited the disclosure of the data.

Art. 349b 439

1 For the disclosure of personal data to the competent authorities of states linked to Switzerland by one of the Schengen association agreements (Schengen States), no stricter data protection rules may apply than for the disclosure of personal data to Swiss criminal authorities.

2 Special laws providing for stricter data protection rules for the disclosure of personal data to the competent foreign authorities do not apply to disclosure to the competent authorities of the Schengen States.

Art. 349c 440

1 Personal data may not be disclosed to the competent authority of a state which is not linked to Switzerland by one of the Schengen association agreements (third country), or to an international body if this would seriously endanger the privacy of the data subjects, in particular due to a lack of adequate protection.

2 Adequate protection shall be ensured by:

a. the legislation of the third country, if the European Union has so provided in a in a resolution;

b. an international treaty;

Art. 368
The competent federal authority may give notice of entries in the register to the offender's country of origin.

Art. 369
1 Convictions that involve a custodial sentence are removed ex officio if the following periods have elapsed over and above the period of the sentence imposed by the court:
   a. 20 years in the case of a custodial sentence of at least five years;
   b. 15 years in the case of a custodial sentence of at least one but less than five years;
   c. ten years in the case of custodial sentences of less than a year;
   d. ten years in the case of deprivation of liberty in accordance with Article 25 JCLA.
2 In the event that a custodial sentence has already been entered in the register, the periods in accordance with paragraph 1 are extended by the duration of that sentence.
3 Convictions involving a suspended custodial sentence, a suspended custody order, a monetary penalty, community service or a fine as the main penalty are removed ex officio after ten years.
4 Convictions that involve an in-patient measure in addition to a sentence or an in-patient measure alone are removed ex officio after:
   a. 15 years in the case of measures under Articles 59–61 and 64;
   b. ten years in the case of secure placement in accordance with Article 15 paragraph 2 of the JCLA.
   c. seven years in the case of open placement in an institution or with private persons in accordance with Article 15 paragraph 1 JCLA.
4bis Convictions that solely involve out-patient treatment in accordance with Article 63 are removed ex officio after ten years. Convictions that involve out-patient treatment in accordance with Article 14 JCLA are removed ex officio after five years unless it is possible to calculate the period in accordance with paragraphs 1–4.\textsuperscript{544}

\textsuperscript{4}ter Convictions that solely involve a measure under Article 66 paragraph 1, 67 paragraph 1 or 67\textsuperscript{e} of this Code or under Articles 48, 50 paragraph 1 or 50\textsuperscript{e} of the Military Criminal Code\textsuperscript{545} are removed ex officio after ten years.

\textsuperscript{4}quater Convictions that solely involve a prohibition order under Article 67 paragraphs 2–4 or under 67\textsuperscript{b} of this Act or under Article 50 paragraphs 2–4 or under 50\textsuperscript{b} MCC are removed ex officio after ten years.\textsuperscript{547}

\textsuperscript{4}quinquies Convictions that solely involve a prohibition order under Article 16\textsuperscript{a} JCLA are removed ex officio after seven years.\textsuperscript{548}

5 The periods in accordance with paragraph 4 are extended by the duration of the remainder of the sentence.

\textsuperscript{5}bis Convictions that include an expulsion order remain on the register until the death of the person concerned. If the person concerned is not resident in Switzerland, the conviction is removed from the register at the latest 100 years after his birth. If the person concerned acquires Swiss citizenship, he may apply to have the conviction removed in accordance with periods set out in paragraphs 1–5 eight years after naturalisation.\textsuperscript{549}

6 The period begins to run:

\begin{itemize}
  \item in the case of convictions under paragraphs 1, 3 and 4\textsuperscript{ter}, 4\textsuperscript{quater} and 4\textsuperscript{quinquies}: on the day on which the conviction becomes legally binding;

Title Seven: Execution of Sentences and Measures, Probation Assistance, Institutions and Facilities

Art. 372

1. Duty to execute sentences and measures

1 The cantons shall execute the judgments issued by their criminal courts on the basis of this Code. They are obliged to execute the judgments of the federal criminal justice authorities in return for the reimbursement of their costs.

2 Decisions in criminal cases made by police authorities and other competent authorities and the decisions of prosecution services are deemed equivalent to court judgments.

3 The cantons shall guarantee the uniform execution of criminal sanctions.\textsuperscript{571}

Art. 373

Legally binding decisions issued on the basis of federal or cantonal criminal law relating to monetary penalties, fines, costs and the forfeiture of property or assets may be executed anywhere in Switzerland.

Art. 374

Right of disposal

1 The cantons are entitled to the monetary penalties and fines imposed and the property and assets forfeited in accordance with this Code.

2 The Confederation is entitled to the proceeds of the cases judged by the Criminal or Appeals Chamber of the Federal Criminal Court.\textsuperscript{572}

3 The use of proceeds for the benefit of persons harmed in accordance with Article 73 is reserved.

4 The provisions of the Federal Act of 19 March 2004\textsuperscript{573} on the Division of Forfeited Assets are reserved.\textsuperscript{574}

Art. 375

3. Community service

1 The cantons are responsible for the execution of community service orders.

\textsuperscript{571} Inserted by No II 2 of the FA of 6 Oct. 2006 on the New System of Financial Equalisation and the Division of Tasks between the Confederation and the Cantons (NFA), in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (AS 2007 5779 5817; BBl 2005 6029).

\textsuperscript{572} Amended by No II 2 of the FA of 17 March 2017 (Creation of an Appeals Chamber in the Federal Criminal Court), in force since 1 Jan. 2019 (AS 2017 5769; BBl 2013 7109, 2016 6199).

\textsuperscript{573} SR 312.4

\textsuperscript{574} Inserted by Annex No 1 of the FA of 19 March 2004 on the Division of Forfeited Assets, in force since 1 Aug. 2004 (AS 2004 3503; BBl 2002 441).
2 The competent authority decides on the nature and form of community service to be performed.

3 The statutory maximum number of working hours may be exceeded in the performance of community service. The regulations on health and safety in the workplace remain applicable.

Art. 376
1 The cantons organise the system of probation assistance. They may delegate this duty to private organisations.

2 Probation assistance is normally the responsibility of the canton in which the probationer is resident.

Art. 377
1 The cantons shall establish and operate institutions and institution units for prison inmates in open and secure custody as well as for prison inmates in semi-detention and in the day release employment.

2 They may also provide units for special inmate groups, and in particular for:
   a. women;
   b. prison inmates of specific age groups;
   c. prison inmates serving very long or very short sentences;
   d. prison inmates that require constant care or treatment or are receiving basic or advanced training.

3 They shall establish and operate the institutions provided for in this Code for the execution of measures.

4 They shall ensure that the regulations and the operation of the institutions and facilities comply with this Code.

5 They shall facilitate the basic and advanced training of the staff.

Art. 378
1 The cantons may enter into agreements on the joint establishment and operation of institutions and facilities or secure themselves a right of joint use of the institutions and facilities belonging to other cantons.

2 The cantons shall inform each other of the special features of their institutions and facilities, and in particular of the range of care, treatment and employment services; they shall cooperate in the allocation of prison inmates to institutions and facilities.

Art. 379

4. Probation assistance

5. Institutions and facilities Duty of the cantons to establish and operate

Cooperation between the cantons

Licensing of private institutions
The cantons may grant licences to privately run institutions and facilities authorising them to execute sentences in the form of semi-detention and of day release employment together with measures under Articles 59–61 and 63.

Privately run institutions and facilities are subject to the supervision of the cantons.

Art. 380

1 The costs of the execution of sentences and measures are borne by the cantons.

2 The offender shall contribute in an appropriate manner to the costs:
   a. by performing work while serving a sentence or undergoing a measure;
   b. in accordance with his income or assets if he refuses to perform work assigned to him even though the work satisfies the requirements of Articles 81 or 90 paragraph 3; or
   c. by deduction of part of the income due to him as payment for an activity while in semi-detention, while subject to electronic monitoring, while on day release employment or while in external accommodation combined with day release employment.

3 The cantons shall issue detailed regulations on offenders' contributions to costs.

Title 7α

Liability in Cases of Discharge from Lifelong Incarceration

Art. 380α

1 If a person subject to lifelong incarceration is released on parole or discharged from incarceration and commits a felony mentioned in Article 64 paragraph 1bis, the responsible body politic shall be liable for the resultant injury and loss.

2 In relation to rights of recourse against the offender and the time limits for filing claims for damages or satisfaction, the provisions of the CO on unlawful acts apply.

577 SR 220
In relation to rights of recourse against the members of the authority issuing the order, cantonal law or the Government Liability Act of 14 March 1958578 applies.

Title Eight: Pardons, Amnesties, Re-opening of Cases

Art. 381

The right to grant a pardon in relation to convictions based on this Code or any other federal act is exercised:

a. by the Federal Assembly in cases in which the Criminal or Appeals Chamber of the Federal Criminal Court or an administrative authority of the Confederation has passed judgment;

b. by the pardons authority of the Canton in cases in which a cantonal authority has passed judgment.

Art. 382

1 The petition for a pardon may be filed by the offender, his legal representative or, with consent of the offender, by his defence agent, spouse or registered partner.580

2 In the case of political felonies and misdemeanours and in the case offences connected with political felonies or misdemeanours, the Federal Council or the cantonal government is also entitled to initiate the pardon procedure.

3 The pardons authority may stipulate that the petition for a pardon that has been refused may not be filed again before the expiry of a certain period.

Art. 383

1 A pardon may wholly or partly remit all sentences imposed by legally binding judgment or commute the sentences to less severe forms of sentence.

2 The pardon decree specifies the extent of the pardon.

Art. 384

1 The Federal Assembly may grant an amnesty in criminal matters governed by this Code or any other federal act.

578 SR 170.32
579 Amended by No II 2 of the FA of 17 March 2017 (Creation of an Appeals Chamber in the Federal Criminal Court), in force since 1 Jan. 2019 (AS 2017 5769; BBl 2013 7109, 2016 6199).
An amnesty excludes the prosecution of specific offences or categories offender and grants the remission of related sentences.

Art. 385

In the case of convictions based on this Code or any other federal act, where important information or evidence comes to light that was not available to the court at the time of the earlier proceedings, the cantons must allow the re-opening of the case for the benefit of the offender.

Title Nine: Preventive Measures, Supplementary Provisions and General Transitional Provisions

Art. 386

1 The Confederation may employ investigative, educational and further measures aimed at preventing specific offences and crime in general.

2 It may support projects that have the aim mentioned in paragraph 1.

3 It may participate in organisations that carry out measures mentioned in paragraph 1 or establish and support such organisations.

4 The Federal Council regulates the nature, aims and form of the preventive measures.

Art. 387

1 The Federal Council has the power after consulting the cantons to enact provisions on:

a. the execution of cumulative sentences, supplementary sentences and cases where two or more individual sentences are executed simultaneously;

b. the assignment of the responsibility for executing sentences and measures to another canton;

c. the execution of sentences and measures imposed on persons suffering from illness or invalidity, or elderly persons;

d. the execution of sentences and measures in cases under Article 80 involving women;

e. the wages paid to prison inmates in accordance with Article 83.

1bis The Federal Council enacts the required provisions on the establishment of the Federal Commission for the Assessment of the Treatability

581 In force since 1 Jan. 2006 in accordance with the Ordinance of 2 Dec. 2005 (AS 2005 5723) of Offenders subject to Lifelong Incarceration (Art. 64c para. 1) relating to the appointment of members of the Commission and their remuneration, procedures and the organisation of the Commission.\footnote{582}

2 The Federal Council may at the request of the responsible cantonal authority issue special provisions on the separation of the institutions of the Canton of the Ticino.

3 The Federal Council may provide that data removed from the register of criminal convictions be preserved for research purposes; if such data is preserved, the privacy of the persons concerned must be protected and the principles of data protection must be complied with.

4 The Federal Council may by way of a trial and for limited time:

a. introduce or permit new penalties and measures as well as new forms of execution and modify the scope of application of existing sanctions and forms of execution;

b. introduce or permit the delegation of the execution of custodial sentences to privately run institutions that satisfy the requirements of this Code relating to the implementation of sentences (Art. 74–85, 91 and 92). These institutions are subject to the supervision of the cantons.

5 The cantonal implementing provisions for the trial of new sanctions and forms of execution and the execution of sentences by privately run institutions (para. 4) require the approval of the Confederation in order to be valid.

\textbf{Art. 388}

1 Judgments issued in application of the previous law are executed in accordance with the previous law. The exceptions in paragraphs 2 and 3 are reserved.

2 Where an act that does not carry a penalty under the new law has led to conviction under the previous law, the sentence or measure imposed is no longer executed.

3 The provisions of the new law on the regime for the execution of sentences and measures and on the rights and obligations of prison inmates also apply to offenders who have been convicted in accordance with the previous law.

\textbf{Art. 389}

1 Unless the law provides otherwise, the provisions of the new statute of limitations for prosecution and the execution of sentences and measures, if they are less strict, also apply to offenders who have committed offences or been convicted before this Code comes into force.

\footnote{582}{Inserted by No I of the FA of 21 Dec. 2007 (Indefinite Incarceration of Extremely Dangerous Offenders), in force since 1 Aug. 2008 (AS \textbf{2008} 2961 2964; BBl \textbf{2006} 889).}
The periods of time that have elapsed before the new law comes into force are taken into account.

Art. 390

1 In the case offences that are only prosecuted on complaint, the period for filing a complaint is calculated in accordance with the law that applied at the time of the offence.

2 If the new law requires a complaint to be filed in respect of an offence that was prosecuted ex officio under the previous law, the period for filing the complaint begins when the new law comes into force. If the prosecution has already been initiated, it may only be continued if a complaint is filed.

3 If the new law stipulates the ex officio prosecution of an offence that was only prosecuted on complaint under the previous law, an offence committed before the new law comes into force is only prosecuted if a complaint is filed.

Art. 391

The cantons shall notify the Confederation of the required transitional provisions to the Swiss Criminal Code.

Art. 392

This Code comes into force on 1 January 1942.

Final Provisions of the Amendment of 18 March 1971

Final Provisions of the Amendment of 13 December 2002

1. Execution of sentences

1 Article 46 applies to the revocation of the suspended execution of a sentence ordered under the previous law. The court may impose a monetary penalty (Art. 34–36) or community service (Art. 37–39) instead of a custodial sentence.

2 The secondary penalties imposed under the previous law of disqualification from holding public office (prev. Art. 51), revocation of parental authority and placing under guardianship (prev. Art. 53), expulsion due to conviction for an offence...

(prev. Art. 55\textsuperscript{587}), prohibition from entering premises licensed to sell alcohol (prev. Art. 56\textsuperscript{588}) are repealed when the new law comes into force.

\textsuperscript{3} The provisions of the new law on the execution of custodial sentences (Art. 74–85, 91 and 92) and on probation assistance, conduct orders and the voluntary social supervision (Art. 93–96) also apply to offenders who were convicted under the previous law.

\textit{2.\textsuperscript{589} Imposition and execution of measures}

\textsuperscript{1} The provisions of the new law on measures (Art. 56–65) and on the execution of measures (Art. 90) also apply to offenders who committed an offence or were convicted before the new law comes into force. However the following also applies:

\begin{itemize}
  \item[a.] The retrospective ordering of indefinite incarceration in accordance with Article 65 paragraph 2 is permitted only if indefinite incarceration would have been possible on the basis of Article 42 or 43 number 1 paragraph 2 of the previous law.
  \item[b.] The detention of young adults in a vocational training institution (Art. 100\textsuperscript{bis} in its version of 18 March 1971\textsuperscript{590}) and any measure for young adults (Art. 61) may not be for a period in excess of four years.
\end{itemize}

\textsuperscript{2} Until twelve months at the latest after the new law comes into force, the court shall assess whether persons indefinitely incarcerated under Articles 42 or 43 number 1 paragraph 2 of the previous law fulfil the requirements for imposing a therapeutic measure (Art. 59–61 or 63). If they do, the court shall impose the relevant; if not, indefinite incarceration is continued in accordance with the new law.
